Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, the bill would make appropriation to the Department of Health for the tuberculosis hospitals.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman know what amount of money, for instance, the county of Allegheny or the city of Pittsburgh would receive if this bill were passed to help us take care of tubercular patients.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, the budget for the Pittsburgh hospitals for 1949 was seven hundred and fifty-five thousand dollars, and this bill was for half of it.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, what is the objection of the Department of Health? Is it to the appropriation itself?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, they have several objections, four or five.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, during the confusion on yesterday's session, I stood upon this floor and inquired as to the status of a bill which was on the calendar, not knowing whether or not that bill had been called. I was advised at that time that the bill had not been called up, then I proceeded to have it called up, and you all know what happened to the bill.

This bill, Senate Bill 684, was on the calendar, and someone rose and asked that the bill go over, and the bill went over. We felt that any bill on the calendar, especially a Senate Bill, would have been called up by the Chair.

Here is a bill, and I want this on the record, so the people back home will know—here is a bill which would have contributed to the expense of maintaining the tubercular patients by counties and cities who now find themselves in financial embarrassment.

Why the Department of Health should have objected to this bill is beyond me. I heard the Majority Leader say that the bill was released in the custody of the Chairman of the Committee. I feel that the record should show that we here in the House did not have an opportunity to vote on this bill, so that our various districts would be reimbursed by the state.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Schmidt, the Chair distinctly recalls having acted upon Senate Bill 684, Printer's No. 643, which was passed over by unanimous consent of the House; there was no objection at yesterday's session.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, just to correct one error in what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Schmidt, said.

I do not want the record to show that there was an inadvertence in the proceedings of yesterday. The Chair knows that I spoke to him about this bill, and the Chair informed me that the Committee Chairman had not received from the Committee the power to move the bill. I knew that there wasn't but one thing to do, and that was to either move to discharge the Committee, although the bill was on the calendar, or attempt to discharge the Committee from its obligation, which would have been an impossible thing to do. After receiving that advice from the Chair we passed the bill over. There wasn't anything else we could do. I simply want the record to show that the gentleman was in error when he stated that the bill was inadvertently passed over.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I also rise to say that there was no inadvertence. It was clearly a matter of the Department of Health having recommended and the Committee Chairman having refused to allow the bill to come out. It was killed, as I see it, as a result of administration tactics.

The SPEAKER. The Chair also thanks the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brandon.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Such fees shall not exceed twelve and one-half per cent of the amount which the court or jury finds the plaintiff is entitled to recover against the insurer but in no event shall such fee if allowed be less than twenty-five dollars. Failure of an insurer to defend any such action shall be deemed prima facie evidence that its failure to make payment was vexatious and without reasonable cause.

Section 2501 Definitions For the purposes of this article the following terms shall have the following meanings

(5) "Maximum Subsidy" shall designate the maximum amount per teaching unit which may be payable by the Commonwealth to any one school district or vocational school district under the provisions of this act The maximum subsidy shall be for the school year 1948-1949 two thousand four hundred fifty dollars [$2400] ($2450) for the school year 1949-1950 [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) and for each school year thereafter [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450) provided that in the event that Federal moneys shall at any time be made available to the Commonwealth for school purposes the superintendent of public instruction may from time to time increase the amount of the applicable maximum subsidy to school districts but not to vocational school districts to an extent necessary to absorb the amount of any allocation of Federal moneys so that "maximum subsidy" as herein above limited shall always have reference to payments made out of appropriations of Commonwealth moneys irrespective of any available Federal moneys

(6) "Standard Reimbursement Fraction" School districts' or vocational school districts' standard reimbursement fraction shall be computed annually in the months of December by the Department of Public Instruction

In the case of a school district its standard reimbursement fraction shall be computed for the school year 1948-1949 by subtracting from two thousand four hundred fifty dollars [$2400] ($2450) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's assessed valuation per district teaching unit by six-one thousandths (.006) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand four hundred fifty dollars [$2400] ($2450) for the school year 1949-1950 by subtracting from [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's [assessed] valuation per district teaching unit as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board by [six] four-one thousandths [(0.006)] (.004) and dividing the difference so obtained by [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) and for every school year thereafter by subtracting from [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's [assessed] valuation per district teaching unit as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board by [six] four-one thousandths [(0.006)] (.004) and dividing the difference so obtained by [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450)

[Until such time as valuations are furnished by the State Tax Equalization Board a] a school district's assessed valuation to be used for purposes of computing the standard reimbursement fraction for the school year 1948-1949 shall be the assessed valuation of the district's taxable real property as determined for the preceding year for county tax purposes [provided that if the assessed valuation as determined for county purposes does not adequately represent the market values of the taxable property the State Council of Education may ascertain such market values and base the reimbursement to any one school district upon the market values ascertained by the State Council of Education when valuations are furnished by the State Tax Equalization Board] for the school year 1949-1950 and for every school year thereafter each district's [assessed] valuation to be used for purposes of computing its standard reimbursement fraction shall be the valuation placed upon its taxable real property by the State Tax Equalization Board

In the case of a vocational school district its standard reimbursement fraction shall be computed for the school year 1948-1949 by subtracting from two thousand four hundred fifty dollars [($2400)] ($2450) an amount determined by multiplying the assessed valuation per district teaching unit by three-one thousandths (.003) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand four hundred fifty dollars [$2400] ($2450) for the school year 1949-1950 by subtracting from [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's [assessed] valuation per district teaching unit as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board by [three] two-one thousandths [(0.003)] (.002) and dividing the difference so obtained by [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) and for every school year thereafter by subtracting from [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's [assessed] valuation per district teaching unit as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board by [three] two-one thousandths [(0.003)] (.002) and dividing the difference so obtained by [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) and for every school year thereafter by subtracting from [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450) an amount determined by multiplying the school districts [assessed] valuation per district teaching unit as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board by [three] two-one thousandths [(0.003)] (.002) and dividing the difference so obtained by [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450)

A school district's or vocational school district's number of district teaching units for purposes of determination of the standard reimbursement fraction shall be obtained as follows (1) divide by twenty-two (22) the number of district pupils in average daily membership in a public high school during the preceding school term (2) divide by thirty (30) the number of district pupils in average daily membership in a public elementary school during the preceding school term and (3) add the quotients obtained under (1) and (2) above except when the pupil-teacher ratio exceeds thirty-three (33) in which case the sum obtained under (1) and (2) above shall be multiplied by thirty-three (33) and the product so obtained shall be divided by the pupil-teacher ratio of the district. No school district or vocational school district shall be credited with less than one teaching unit or be assigned a reimbursement fraction lower in value than the minimum subsidy divided by the maximum subsidy. All one-room schools operated in accordance with the provisions of this act shall if their operation is approved by the State Council of Education be credited with at least one teaching unit. The State Council of Education shall withhold its approval of any one-room one teacher school unless (1) topography distance or condition of roads are such as to make transportation of pupils impractical or (2) it is impossible to accommodate pupils in existing graded schools in the district or other districts or (3) the district is financially unable to construct a consolidated school

Section 2502 Payments on account of instruction Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for the school year 1948-1949 on account of the instruction of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools an amount to be determined by multiplying the number of teaching units based on the number of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools by two thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($2450) and by the district's standard reimbursement fraction

Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for the school year 1949-1950 on account of the instruction of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools an amount to be determined by multiplying the number of teaching units based on the number of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools by [two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500)] three thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($3350) and by the district's standard reimbursement fraction provided that the amount of payment to be made by the Commonwealth to any school district during the school year 1950-1951 for the school year 1949-1950 on account of the instruction of pupils under the provisions of this section shall not be less than the amount paid to the district during the school year 1949-1950 on account of the instruction of pupils

Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for the school year 1950-1951 and for every school year thereafter on account of the instruction of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools an amount to be determined by multiplying the number of teaching units based on the number of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools by [two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)] three thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3450) and by the district's standard reimbursement fraction

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section when because of sparsity of population road or climatic conditions or lack of other available high school facilities the State Council of Education has approved the continued operation of a small high school the district shall receive an amount based on a number of teaching units equal to the number of teachers approved by the State Council of Education as being required to provide a satisfactory educational program in such school provided that the number of teachers employed is not less than the number approved

For no year shall any school district or vocational school district receive less than the minimum subsidy per teaching unit

Section 2503 Payments on account of tuition (a) Each school district regardless of classification sending pupils to another school district or vocational school district or to a joint high school approved by the Department of Public Instruction shall be paid by the Commonwealth for every school year on account of tuition an amount to be determined by multiplying the sum of "overhead cost per pupil" and "instruction cost per elementary pupil" or "instruction cost per high school pupil" as the case may be as defined in section two thousand five hundred sixty-one of this act or in the case of district pupils attending a school not located in this Commonwealth on the basis of a reasonable tuition charge per pupil to be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction (i) by the number of district pupils except district pupils attending a high school operated by a joint board of which the district of residence is a member sent to schools of other districts or to a joint school and (ii) by the districts standard reimbursement fraction and (iii) [by] for tuition up to and including the school year 1948-1949 by seventy-five-one-hundredths (.75) and

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the session of the General Assembly now drawing to a close will probably live in history because of its generosity. It has been a graduated generosity, Mr. Speaker—little raises for little fellows, and a gradual increase in the tempo of generosity as the pace approaches the top.

I would not be opposed to increases in the salaries of the Members of the High Command were those increases in keeping with the increases made in other directions. I am particularly mindful of the increases that have been handed the teachers of the Commonwealth. I see that we boost the Governor from eighteen thousand dollars to twenty-five thousand dollars". Maybe the Governor should have been getting twenty-five thousand dollars a long time ago, but boosting it from eighteen thousand dollars to twenty-five thousand dollars is quite a boost. The Lieutenant Governor from eight thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars, plus accessories. If anyone knows what the Lieutenant Governor does to earn the eight thousand dollars, I have not been able to figure it out myself. The Secretary of Commerce from ten thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars; the Attorney General from twelve thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars. Now, that is a peculiar arrangement. The Attorney General in any schedule ought to rate higher than the Secretary of Commerce and the Lieutenant Governor. A good Attorney General would be worth fifty thousand dollars to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as he would save that much money in the course of a year. If we would have the right kind of Attorney General, I would be willing to pay him a hundred thousand dollars a year, and so would the Majority Leader for that matter. The State Treasurer, the Auditor General, well, they are new boys. We boost them from twelve thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars to encourage them. Let all us Republicans stand together. The Secretary of Internal Affairs,—now, Mr. Speaker, that fellow has a mighty nice income from his private practice of law, I understand. He has his salary boosted from ten thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars. If he gets fifteen thousand dollars he should pay some attention to his office and take time off from his private practice. I think in this particular case the salary should come down from ten thousand dollars to about six thousand dollars.

Then, Mr. Speaker, we go on down the line. These increases are out of line with the general increases that have been handed down. For that reason, reluctantly I will have to vote against this particular bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the thing that is happening to the world today is that the minute we try to improve the standards of living of the little fellow, the other fellow wants to go just that much above him. I often wonder where in the world we are going on salary increases like these, when we say to the poor school teacher "We will better your conditions a little bit" and then we take the big fellow up at the top, and because he is better than the school teacher by two cents an hour we have got to pay this fellow a great big salary and increase the big salary already he is getting.

That is two dollars an hour, somebody said. Maybe that is right, I haven't figured that out. Whenever you get into those large figures I don't understand them, they get beyond me; I don't understand them when they get that big. So, I am like my friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, if you had made a decent bill and had given them a decent increase, I could possibly have voted for it and shut my eyes when I did so, when I think of the few cents the school teachers got. My friends, I am going to vote against this bill.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, this bill, as I understand it, is raising the salaries of people who are now receiving a very large salary. We have people on public assistance who are not getting enough to live on. This is another case of giving the guy with the least a kick in the pants. So, I say to you, that if you vote for this bill it is not humanitarian when you give these people a raise and forget these poor people who cannot help themselves.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, it isn't difficult to see where a large portion of tax money is going if you have followed this 1949 session's record. I knew that a great deal of the tax funds would be used for improper purposes and not for the benefit of the average Pennsylvania citizen, and I am glad I voted against two of the eight bills in the Governor's program, even though all of my own bills for the people were killed for revenge by the Governor's leaders in this House. Too much is being done for the benefit of the head state officials and too much privilege has gone to the bosses who have a stranglehold on this state government. I desire to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I hesitate to oppose anyone getting all the good things in this life that he can get, but I cannot refrain from commenting on this bill that shall call a salary grab bill.

I shall have to oppose this bill because it is not in keeping with the salaries of other persons in our state. Your attention has been called by our Minority Leader to our neglect to give to the teachers what they should properly have.

I want to call your attention to another group of servants of our state. When you go to the liquor store and buy your gin and rum that is handed out to you legally, these servants of our state are given a salary that is barely sufficient to maintain the necessities of life.

Now, let us not forget, Mr. Speaker, when we go back home our constituents will say "We detest the idea of paying so much tax; you are burdening us with another tax." Then you just go back home and tell them that you voted for a bill to increase the salaries of a lot of our high officials of the state. That is one of the reasons that has added just a little more to our tax burden. We must not forget that the money spent by our state does not grow on trees; that it must come from the people of the state; that we must make up that money in some way through taxes and we should show our constituents back home that we have put forth an effort to curtail the expenses of this great Commonwealth which are from session to session mounting higher and higher.

We have today inflation. The pendulum has swung far to the right, and if history repeats itself, that pendulum will swing back to the left. Then we may recall the days when we or some of our friends stood on the street corner selling apples in order that they might buy a loaf of bread. That day may come again, but here in this bill you are going to raise the remuneration of some of our higher paid officials of the state to the place where they will live in comfort and ease while many of the poor tax payers of the state can hardly maintain a decent existence. Let us not forget this.

I ask the Members of the House to remember well what I say. You are establishing a precedent, and once you attempt to take this bit of candy from these men and women you will find that you have a most difficult job. It is more difficult to reduce a salary than it is to increase it. I am voting against this bill.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to debate this bill, but I am more or less familiar with it and I think I should reply to some of the arguments advanced by the other side.

In the first place, the Minority Leader has called the attention of this House to two salary increases, the Auditor General and the State Treasurer. There has been a change of party in those two offices and we are voting for an increase for them. Surely the gentleman is well aware that under the provisions of the Constitution, since these men were elected prior to this, they cannot profit from this particular measure and their salaries will remain at the lower rate. These salary increases generally are long past due.

We have increased the salaries of others in this Session. We took upon ourselves at the last Session in this very House to enact an expense allowance of twelve hundred dollars a year, when we are elected to receive a salary of three thousand dollars. True, it is an expense allowance, but nevertheless it is tantamount to a very large percentage of increase over and above what we were elected to receive.

There is no reflection on the Members of the Cabinet of this administration, or any past administration, but certainly adequate compensation should be provided so as to procure competent people to fill those positions. I cannot comprehend this great state of Pennsylvania, with its increased responsibilities from biennium to biennium, coping with the problems of over ten millions of people, having them regulate that huge business with the salaries that we are presently paying them. I think the increases are not adequate; I think that men who handle a business of this size, who conduct the business of a great outstanding Commonwealth like Pennsylvania, merit proper and adequate compensation. I do not look at this as a salary grab. I think it is inadequate and I hope the Membership of this House realize it. As I said before, in view of the huge responsibility imposed upon the State Government and the ever increasing demands for more and more from session to session, it is important that we attract men to the state government who can do the job and who will not be prevented from coming in by inadequate compensation.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I hesitate to get up against a salary raise, for anybody, as I am always out to get the most I can for myself, but I want to call to the attention of the Membership of the House a statement I made on the Floor of the House several weeks ago on another salary raise bill. The Members on the other side said that it was not adequate, that the salaries should be higher. I want to remind you of the program of the working people of Pennsylvania, when you said that a proper program was to give a man twenty-five dollars a week when he is off work and has a family to keep.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to confess a vast inadvertence. I notice that the Chairman of the Milk Control Commission is carried along in this measure. I had forgotten, but I had intended to present an amendment which would have given the Chairman of the Milk Control Commission nine dollars and ninety-nine cents a year.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, perhaps some of you gentlemen will think I am opposing this bill because those in power belong to the majority party. I rise to clear that situation, for it is my humble belief that the next session will find our party on this side in the majority, and I want to obligate myself by saying that we can furnish plenty efficient and capable persons to fill these positions at the salaries they are now being paid.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make one statement. In this bill Section 4, Page 13, it says: "The provisions of this Act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment of this bill." That is all I have to say.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I am not arising to oppose this bill but I wish somebody could explain it. There seem to be some things in here that I do not understand and I know that some of the other Members of the House do not understand them, with regard to appointing the apprenticeship council.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Herman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERMAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to establish in Pennsylvania an apprenticeship council to better provide for an adequate skilled labor force. I feel that the bill is a good one. There is nothing mandatory about it. Any industry or any labor organization that sees fit can go into this apprenticeship system. The bill provides for an Apprenticeship Council on which there is representation for both labor and industry. I think it is a good bill and I urge the Members to vote for it.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, in this bill before the House the members of the board when first organized, are appointed, I believe, is that right?

Mr. HERMAN. That is correct, they are appointed, Mr. Speaker, by the Governor.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, is there any salary attached to those appointments?

Mr. HERMAN. I think there is no salary, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, what power would the appointed council have? Is it merely a voluntary set-up?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, voluntary set-up, and it is recommended that they cooperate with any branch of labor and any branch of industry. It provides for an apprenticeship system and better conditions for apprentices.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, what type of apprenticeship does this cover? What part of industry?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I believe it will cover any part of industry that desires to cooperate.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, in the appointment of Apprenticeship Council, can the gentleman tell me how the Governor arrives at who is qualified to serve on this Council?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wouldn't know how the Governor determines who to appoint. The bill provides that the Governor shall appoint a council of eight members, four from labor and four from industry.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, in the appointment of this Council, does the Governor appoint so many from employers and so many from employees, or would he go into organized labor to make any of those appointments?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wouldn't know where the Governor would go to make the appointments. I know that the bill says that four of them shall be appointed from employees and four from employers.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to oppose this bill, but I think there is a lot left out of it, and since the Legislature meets only every two years, we will find out a lot of things that are omitted, probably to be corrected in 1951.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would refer the Members who may be considering this bill to the provision on page five of the bill. That provision reads:

"The provisions of this act shall apply only if such persons, copartnerships, associations, corporations, political subdivisions, employers' associations or organizations of employees have voluntarily elected to conform with its provisions."

It is as the gentleman from Dauphin says, purely a voluntary matter.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in regard to this particular bill, I think we now have a Federal act that covers pretty well what is in this act. Now, how the federal act panned out, to what success I don't know, but I feel, if it has been successful, there is a possibility that we do not need this legislation, and I am always just a little afraid of this kind of act. They start out very simple and they are all voluntary, but as we go along, I fear we will find ourselves being regimented into this, that or the other thing. I don't think there is any need for such an act; I have never heard of any need. I don't hear industry crying for it; I do not hear labor organizations crying for it; I don't hear anybody crying for it. So, therefore, I don't see any need for it. You can vote for it if you want to.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I must concur in the statement by the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett. I have looked at this bill and I noticed that it gives the council power of eminent domain, it gives the council also the power to settle differences arising from grievances. I don't think the standards are very high, and since it is rather vague and since there is not a clear purpose stated in the bill, I think I will have to vote against it.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

- On the question,
- Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
- It was agreed to.
- On the question,
- Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the Members, after the consideration of Senate Bill 243, Printer's No. 679, the Chair will clear the table and then declare a recess for one hour, if there are no objections.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 243, referred to as the Penal Code or the crimes act, numerous inquiries have been received in connection therewith, and I feel that some explanation of the bill is in order. This might be known as the mystery bill in some respects.

In some instances it seems difficult to understand why fire works were put into the bill in the Senate. On the part of the House there seems to be some mystery why it did not go in in the House. As a matter of fact, the bill was taken from the desk the other day for amendment. The bill also in many respects might be referred to and has been referred to as the gamblers' act.

This bill has many provisions in it, one of which refers to gamblers alone. Many times it appears as though we have no gambling laws on our statue books. That is not true; we have them on our statute books at the present time. The only thing this does is to increase the monetary penalty from five hundred dollars to one thousand dollars. In connection with this particular section of the bill I feel justified at this time in reading this editorial taken from the Harrisburg Evening News of Monday, April 25, as follows:

"Pending and still commanding attention are the Duff housing program, the measures to provide roadside-zoning, the sharper teeth that need to be put into the State's gambling laws. Of course there are many others, but the organized resistance of gambling interests to heavier fines and penalties for their violation of the laws is still another challenge to the Legislature.

"We have gamblers all over the place today," said Chairman McKinney of the House Judiciary Committee.

"The Senate has passed the measure on to the House. The House ought to emphasize its integrity by adopting the bill before tonight's sunset. A Legislature can survive the brand of being dominated by dairy, truck, rail, corporate and similar interests, but shame will track it for years if the impression prevails that gamblers grabbed the Legislature's throat and choked it into submission."

Now, in this House a couple of weeks ago there was circulated a sheet containing a great number of items which it was contended were included in the bill. These items were checked item by item by a subcommittee of the Committee on Judiciary to study this bill, and also by the Joint State Government Commission staff, and we find that in all respects the items mentioned in this list that was circulated have been taken care of.

A great number of the items related to mistakes which are contained in the general provisions of that section. I have been questioned with reference to certain sections not being in it, but we found among them only one we felt was not included in the bill itself, which was inserted as an amendment. We also found that there were several sections that were not in the bill at all which were deleted by the Joint State Government Commission. It was felt that this particular offense was exclusively of Federal jurisdiction and therefore the state should not take it on.

Then there is a section with reference to discrimination. That section is specifically covered by Section 212 of the particular bill before us. As you go down the list, you will find every item on that sheet is contained in this bill or has been properly accounted for.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I don't want to take up too much time of the House in connection with this bill. It has been thoroughly studied for four years. Four years ago the Joint State Government Commission started to study this bill with a committee composed of Members of the House, the Senate, Judges of the state, District Attorneys of this state, and defense councils of this state. We had a complete coverage of viewpoints when this bill was drafted. The bill did not go through the last session until the closing days, when it was acted upon. During the past two years it has received further study, and Mr. Orban, the gentleman from Somerset, and myself, two members of the committee, two years ago studied this bill. Then the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Weiss, was added as a member. This bill has received a very careful and thoughtful study. We find and are convinced that the bill as a whole is a step forward in criminal jurisprudence in the State of Pennsylvania.

For me to stand up here and enumerate for you the list of offenses would take too long, and I am sure the Members of the House would tire. Therefore, based upon the study which has been made by the Joint State Government Commission and their staff, based upon the thorough study made by the subcommittee of the Judiciary and the Committee on Judiciary as a whole, we firmly recommend the adoption of this bill 243.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, it was my Resolution No. 11, Printer's No. 382, of the 1945 regular Session that started the revision of Pennsylvania's criminal laws. This is the result after four years of work by many Judges, law school deans, law school professors, District Attorneys, Defense Attorneys, Senators and Representatives of this House. As Vice-Chairman of the Revision Committee and as a Member of this Legislature, I must say that I approve of most of the sections of this revision as embodied in this bill, but there are some I do not approve and which I also voted against in the Revision Committee. I am voting for this bill, but by that vote, I am not approving nor consenting to some of the provisions therein. I am voting for the bill on the ground that its good exceeds its bad, and that where it is bad, it has not increased the bad features of the present law.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, as a minority member of the subcommittee, I want to join in the remarks of the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, and with him, I ask for the approval of this bill.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to extend my warm personal thanks to the members of the advisory committee of the Joint State Government Commission who served in 1947 and who served in redrafting the bill we are acting upon now.

I wish also to express my warm thanks to the Chairman of the subcommittee of the House Committee on Judiciary, the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Orban, and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Weiss. I believe that the House should be grateful to those Members for the scanning of this very important legislation and for the many, many hours of time that they put in in its preparation so that this bill could come before the House for our consideration at this time.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, the present bill represents many years of study and work. I must concur with the remarks of the gentlemen who have preceded me. There are many features which have for many years needed change. Of course, the uniformity in penalty is one good thing. There are many other good things. I think on the whole this great work done by our Judges and the subcommittee is certainly deserving of our sincere thanks, in compiling this codification of the criminal code. I think this is a good bill and we should vote for it.

Mr. ORBAN. Mr. Speaker, at the time the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, explained this bill to you, there was considerable confusion in the House, and for that reason I want to repeat that the Section placed in the bill by the Senate pertaining to fireworks has been removed.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, on Page 56, if a man were to give away a punch board he would be subject to a fine of one thousand dollars or a year in jail, would he not?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, yes, if he gave it away for the purpose of having it used for gambling purposes, but not otherwise.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, if a man does not have a fixed residence, then the court would have to decide whether the man was in the habit of gambling before they could fine him one thousand dollars, is that correct?

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, on page 104, "Whoever being the proprietor or manager of any place," which means any club of any kind in the state, "of resort or entertainment keeps or permits to be placed upon the premises any game upon which there shall be staked intoxicating drinks"—suppose you walk into the Elks room and you decide you want to play pool for a glass of beer,—would the manager be subject to a one hundred dollar fine and or thirty days in jail?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I didn't quite get that question.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, if a man under that section goes into a club, whether it is a firemen's club or a veteran's club or anything else and he decides to play a game of pool with another member of the club, the winner pays for the drinks; the manager of the club under this section then is subject to a one hundred dollar fine or thirty days in jail?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I would say yes, that has always been the law. Whether or not it is good law and has been enforced is another question. It has been on the statute books:

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, what assurance do we have that this one is going to be enforced?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, this bill does not have anything to do with the enforcement of the law; it has to do with crime.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, with regard to this bill, I don't know the offices affected, and therefore I cannot say as to the amount of work they do. However, in the olden days, we used to have prophets, both major and minor. This morning we seem to have disposed of major prophets and here we come to take care of the minor prophets, but strangely enough the increases really correspond to the increases which we have given to the major prophets. In the first case we raised the salary from five thousand dollars to seven thousand five hundred dollars, which is a fifty per cent increase, and the assistant reporter's salary from three thousand dollars to six thousand dollars, which is one hundred per cent.

I remember when I went to school I had to learn a piece and to recite it. I was coached very carefully as to the inflections I should use with my voice and gestures, to enhance the value of the speech, and it ran like this: "A mighty hand from an inexhaustible urn pours forth a never ending flood."

You know gentlemen, it seems to me that we ought to turn off the spigot at this point.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 28, 1949.

Through the generosity of Mr. A. E. O'Brien, acting on behalf of the Association of Pennsylvania Constructors, the Members of the House of Representatives were invited and furnished with tickets to attend the Shrine Circus last evening.

The event had been looked forward to with great anticipation of a most enjoyable evening of entertainment and relaxation, at a performance known for its outstanding excellence.

It was with deep regret that the Members of the House accepted the realization that their duties as Representatives of the People of Pennsylvania could not be neglected for even so tempting a diversion; therefore be it Provided That no such additional contributions shall be required unless the employer is notified of his revised rate not later than one year from the end of the calendar year to which the rate is applicable unless the department finds that the employer has directly or indirectly contributed to the error. No interest shall be required to be paid in connection with such additional contributions if they are paid within thirty (30) days from the date that the employer is notified of his revised rate.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to debate this bill very much at length. I realize that yesterday we fought very ardently to have an amendment put into the bill. Naturally that amendment in the bill is somewhat of a gain. I fear in the dying days of the session, what may happen to amendments that the Senate must concur in. The principle of the bill I am entirely opposed to, and I will vote against this bill, due to the principle that still remains in it, and I am afraid that my little amendment may not remain.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I only rise to request that the Members on this side of the House who yesterday opposed the measure vote now in favor of the bill as amended.

Mr. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to take any time in discussing this bill. I think you are all familiar with it. We were successful yesterday in putting amendments into this bill which would give employees some consideration under the bill. I think the bill is a proper bill in its present form and I request that the Members on this side of the House vote for the bill.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I cannot find any good reason why this bill should have been put into the final rush. It was referred to the Committee in the Senate on March 7. It is a very short bill and it would not have taken long to consider it. They could have sent it over here before we got into this final rush this Session.

I am not going to debate the bill very much. I can't see any reason under the sun why we should pass this bill today. Our superintendents held office very successfully, I might say, under the present law. We passed other bills here for superintendents, very willing to help along. I am going to request my good friend, the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger, to get up and tell this House why in the world we need this bill at all, and if he can do that and if he can satisfy all you men and you think you need such a bill, it is all right with me.

May I request Mr. Sollenberger to give this House some real good reason why we should pass this bill.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, the gentleman wants to know some good reason for passing this bill. I think we have several good reasons for it.

In the body of the bill we have the fact that sixty days before the election of a district superintendent, a notice shall be sent to the superintendent, that there is going to be an election. Then he knows sixty days prior to the second Tuesday of April, which is the election date for superintendents, that he will have opposition, and that he can discuss the problem with his board or he can look elsewhere for a position. That seems very fair, to give a superintendent notice that there is going to be an election held. The question has been asked of me here on the floor about this notification of an election, that we don't have it; that no one has it. That is not the fact. We do notify the public that we are going to be candidates for the House of Representatives. They know it; they have time to react upon our election. I think that definitely will do away with the type of argument we have here on the floor of the House.

Going back to the bill, Mr. Speaker, less than one-half of the school board members may petition. In the second class districts, where there are nine members, it requires only four signatures on the request. In third class districts where there are seven members, it requires three. Thus, less than one-half of the Board members have the right to call for an election, and that, gentlemen, is a fair and a safe manner to hold an election for the district superintendent. Remember that the superintendent has no say in the matter. It is entirely up to the School Board to say whether he is going to have opposition or whether there is going to be a notification sent to him that there will be opposition. It is definitely a school board bill and not a superintendent's bill, to make himself secure in his office, as some people believe.

There might be many other statements made but it gives the superintendent the right to know he will not be reelected without opposition or he may not be reelected at all, which is a just, fair and honest approach to the problem.

The question was asked today whether that has ever happened. Yes, it has happened many times and it may happen in the future. Again I say that this is a good bill, it is a school board bill for the protection of the district and not a superintendent's bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Blair says that it is not a superintendent's bill, it is a School Board bill. I have talked to men who are interested in the school boards and they say they are opposed to the bill. Why should they be opposed to it?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, naturally I mean relative to the contracts. We may have made a mistake in putting that phrase to it.

Mr. LOVETT. I should say the gentleman did make a mistake. He made it sound the other way around.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the school board wants this so that the school board can do these things.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I asked the gentleman from Blair for some good reason. He said there was a good reason, and I suppose the gentleman is right. How many superintendents are affected in the state of Pennsylvania under this bill?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Do I understand the gentleman to be asking me the number of district superintendents in the state?

Mr. LOVETT. No, Mr. Speaker, under this particular bill.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, of course, all superintendents in the second and third class districts come under this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. How many are there, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I believe there are three hundred and seventy-nine in the third class districts and about twenty or twenty-one or something like that in the second class districts. I am not certain of that number but I would say approximately four hundred.

Mr. LOVETT. Then, Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger, in that number of superintendents that we have throughout the state of Pennsylvania, how many of those superintendents are being mistreated at the end of their four year term, by being dismissed? How many of that number would the gentleman say, when they come up for reelection, are being dismissed by the board?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, I think he knows and I know that I cannot answer that question. I have no statistics on that but I say it has been done, and I will tell him privately who, when and where it has been done, but not of course for the record. Not too often,—I do not infer that.

Mr. LOVETT. In other words, Mr. Speaker, there may be one or two cases or three or four cases out of the superintendents who have five hundred places in the state. Now, gentleman, that is no reason why we should pass this legislation, to my way of thinking. If we were abusing the superintendents—I want to say to the gentleman that he referred to the Members of the Legislature, that we notified the people. There isn't anything in this bill that the superintendent notifies anybody sixty days prior to the time that he may be going to retire, or anything like that.

Of course, I realize that there is a certain amount of ethics among school men—these superintendents. If they have opposition; if some one or two members on the board—it would take three members to raise a question on a seven man board, and it would take four on a nine man board—naturally, as I say, if the superintendent is under fire, under the ethics existing in the profession, that would not apply. If there isn't any firing then there is a perfect right to notice. Let us be fair about these things.

The gentleman from Blair hasn't told me any good reason at all why we should pass this legislation. I say honestly to you and aboveboard you are being fair with the superintendents, and there isn't any question about that. I think it comes with ill grace that they ask for protection like this, and I leave the matter up to the judgment of the Members of the House as to whether or not they think that the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger, has any case.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to be sure that I understand this bill. I would like to inquire whether under the terms of this bill, there is not an interval of sixty days before a superintendent's term expires, during which he can rob a bank, steal a horse, fool around with various things that he should not fool around with, and still by virtue of the fact that no notification has been filed that he automatically succeeds himself?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I presume that he uses language which goes a little beyond the practical life of a superintendent of schools.

Mr. ANDREWS. A lot of them get mixed up, you know, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. But he does have sixty days notice, Mr. Speaker, prior to his election on the second Tuesday in April in the year 1950-1954, and it does not say what he shall or shall not do; it just notifies him that there will be an election. I don't know anything else to answer except that that is the wording in the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if no notification is filed sixty days prior to the extended end of this term, during those sixty days toward the end of his first term and the beginning of his second term, he may live the life of Riley and still automatically succeed himself?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, he can only succeed himself if the board reelects him.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if they do not notify him that they are going to fire him, don't they have to reelect him?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, there is no wording in the bill which says anything about his being fired.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman. I still don't understand the bill.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, it simply says that prior to that sixty days a notice will be sent out by the secretary of the board that four members of a nine member board, or three members of a seven member board request an election of a superintendent on the second Tuesday of November, which is the legal date for the election of a superintendent. It does not say he shall be elected or that he shall be fired. That depends upon the action of the board upon that day.

Mr. BUCCHIN. Mr. Speaker, looking over this measure, 502, there is a convention of school directors on the second Tuesday in the month of April 1950. Nine members of the second class school district sit in convention all by themselves. If they receive a formal application from anyone to be commissioned a superintendent of schools in this Commonwealth, the nine members by unanimous vote or by a majority vote can nominate and place in election a superintendent of schools. As a member of a school district of a second class, I really only have attended four conventions. We have had the benefit of an advisory board consisting of professors of the University, college presidents and so forth. They screen every applicant and they place before the board people who are sincere, who are qualified to perform the high office of superintendent of schools of this Commonwealth, and I think it has been the practice that has been found to be to the best interest of the school districts, whether of the second or third class.

As I see it under this bill if four members of a second class school district should neglect to notify the superintendent of schools, prior to the expiration date of his term, he would automatically keep himself in office for another four years. I think that is fundamentally wrong. I do not think that is the democratic way of electing a superintendent. As a member of the school board in the city of Bethlehem, I reiterate that I attended four conventions, and I see no sound reason why we should not defeat this bill.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. I shall, Mr. Speaker. I am awful glad the gentleman is not an attorney.

Mr. McMILLEN. I am a school board member, for the benefit of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Speaker. Does the gentleman believe a man should be given notice of termination of his employment, if such termination is contemplated? Does the gentleman think that is fair?

Mr. LOVETT. I would answer that question by saying to the gentleman—

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would prefer a yes or no answer. Is it fair that a man should be notified if there is a possibility of termination of his employment?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman is going to make my answer, I won't answer. If he wants me to answer, I will.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would still prefer a yes or no answer.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I know thousands of men who are working who never get any notice of whether they are to be discharged or not—thousands of them in Pennsylvania.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Westmoreland feel that it is fair that a man should be given notice of the termination of his employment.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I don't believe that you should give it to any one particular class unless you are going to give it to everyone in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, that is not the question I asked the gentleman. The question we are really debating is, is this a fair proposition that a man should have notice? Let us start somewhere. Let's be fair. Let's start fair.

All right, now, one more question. Does the gentleman believe that a school board should have the power and authority and the necessary law that would permit them to hire or dismiss a superintendent if they do not want him?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, absolutely, I believe they should have the power.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, on that question the gentleman answers right, but when it comes the other way, he won't answer yes or no.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland?

Mr. McMILLEN. No, I do not believe so, Mr. Speaker.

It seems to me that this can resolve itself into two very simple questions. The first, is it fair and just that we should give a man notice if we are contemplating cancellation of his contract, and I believe in that principle.

The other one is, should a school board who is responsible for the operation of the school system, have the right and the power to dismiss a school superintendent if they don't want him, and I believe that is true. This works both ways.

Now then, the gentleman brought up the question here about the board failing to give this sixty days notice. The only thing I can say is that as a school board member, I am not interested enough in the supervision of schools under my control so as to be aware as to this qualification under the law, then I do not deserve to be a school director.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, without going into the merits and demerits of Senate Bill 502, let me give you an instance of something that happened quite some years ago when I was a member of the Monessen School Board. About a month and a half before the time came for the election of a superintendent I had heard by the grapevine that some of the members were considering changing the superintendent. I talked to these members and I told them plainly, I said, "Listen, gentlemen, if you feel that a change is necessary, let us talk the thing over, let us call in the superintendent; otherwise, as the superintendent is elected only once every four years, in that case you are giving him the idea that he is going to be reelected and you are giving him false hopes that he is going to be your superintendent for another four years." I said, "If the majority of you men feel that a change is necessary, I for one am willing to go along with that change" but I said "Gentlemen, I am not willing to wait until the day of election to let him know what will happen." At that time the matter was dropped. As a matter of fact they had told this particular superintendent that he was going to be elected again. On the day of election, without notice, the Board elected another man. This man on that particular day was shocked. I voted against the election of this new man, and I so stated at the time of the Board meeting. I think that this particular Board should have given him proper notice and in time. This is what happened, a new superintendent was elected and then this man died of a broken heart. Situations of that kind should be prevented.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I did not expect that I would have to debate with my own colleague on this question, but he asked for it, so I guess we will have to give it to him.

When it comes to men dying of a broken heart, you are getting down to where it is a pretty tough proposition. If Mr. Sollenberger will get up and say on this floor that superintendents are dying of broken hearts because they don't know whether they are going to have a job in the next four years or not, I probably will be convinced and vote for the bill, but I don't believe that Mr. Sollenberger would get up and make that kind of a statement, that superintendents are dying of broken hearts because they are going to lose their jobs as superintendents. Now, I feel sorry for a superintendent that would allow his heart to be broken because he did not receive a particular job. Pennsylvania is a big state—sometimes it is better to move the people around to different positions, and maybe you will get much better work.

The gentleman back here who said he is a member of the school board, told you that they bring in the name, they have a man there that selects or goes through the qualifications of the man. There isn't anything unfair about that, and if there are two men on that school board who wish to have that election, they could not do it. Even if they qualified for ninety days before, they could not do it—you have to have three men on the school board, on one school board, and four on the other school board. Now, at least I fight in the interest of the minority. If there are two men on that board, they should have the right to say that there will be an election and bring in the names of the candidates they want for superintendent in that particular school district. I think that the gentleman back here explained it very well, that that has been the custom. We have had good school superintendents, and I see no reason why we should change it at this time.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Just one more statement, Mr. Speaker. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, asked the question about the election and relative to the broken hearts of superintendents. I do not believe that I have inferred that, and we are not talking in that vein. We are simply saying that this is a good bill, it is a protecting bill from the standpoint of both the school boards and the superintendents. It is clear; just a few lines will explain that.

Now, Mr. Speaker, relative to the statement of the gentleman from Bethlehem, that is true, that is the way many superintendents are elected, but under this bill he can be elected in the very same manner. Were that not true, then the bill would not be a good bill, but he is elected just the same under this bill. There is nothing in the world to change the old fashioned elections so far as pertains to getting expert advice as to these men; it simply permits the same as is permits any other election board. It is just a notification of sixty days, and that certainly isn't doing anything that is not fair.

Mr. CLAPPER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make this statement to the Members of the House. You have heard the debate pro and con on this bill. The Member from Westmoreland has made the statement that he cannot see why this legislation should be passed. There are any number of reasons why this bill can be called a good bill. In the first place, the bill if it was passed by the Senate it certainly must have some merit or it would never have passed the Senate. They gave it serious consideration.

I would further like to make this statement, two weeks ago we passed a bill in this House extending the term of the county commissioner from four to six years. I think it was proper that that bill should be passed in the House, and I think it would only be due and proper that this bill pass this House this afternoon. We must remember one thing, that the superintendents of schools in Pennsylvania are doing a magnificent piece of work, and I would like to impress upon your minds, if it were not for the school superintendents and for their leadership in our educational system, we would be facing a demoralized situation. If we want good schools, we must have good leaders. I believe it is only fair that we give them consideration when we have legislation that would be beneficial to them.

The question was asked, why should they be notified sixty days before the expiration of their term by the members of the school board. I would like to make this statement, and I believe that most of you will agree with me, that if a man is to be dismissed on short notice from any position, he is naturally going to let his work undone and he will leave his office in a condition that would not be satisfactory to the work which he is doing. Those of you who have had any experience with school districts cannot deny the fact that any superintendent going out of any school system on short notice will let that school be demoralized. The whole setup of the school program is disrupted, and any bad move that is made naturally has its effects upon the students of that school.

I repeat what I said a week or so ago, that the educational system in our nation is facing a national crisis. I repeat that statement this afternoon. I realize that His Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania was aware of that fact when he tried and did help to pay the teachers of Pennsylvania an increase in salary. I know that at the present time in one of the teacher's colleges there are six positions waiting for every teacher who graduates from that state teacher's college this year. That is a fact that should make all of us think.

I say this afternoon the future destiny of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the nation as a whole rests in the very laps of our county superintendents of schools, and I think it is only fair that we give these men who are doing a fine job careful consideration when we vote at this time, and I ask my colleagues to support this bill this afternoon.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, yesterday I fought very ardently to have amendments put into this bill. I want to say today that I am just as much interested in having this bill passed as it now stands, because at least this bill corrects some of the injustices under Act 481, and I will ask my colleagues to support this bill so at least we may correct the evils as best we can in this particular piece of legislation.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, very briefly I assume that every Member here knows what this bill is. We tried to amend this bill; we did amend it. The majority side saw fit to reconsider and take those amendments out, and I want to warn you that with the wage tax in it, organized labor is one hundred percent against this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Westmoreland has already asked his colleagues to support this bill. That was a work of supererogation. The coal lobby has to come, first—I miss the familiar faces of the coal lobby.

I understand they haven't yet recovered from a severe case of goose pimples. There was a period yesterday when the coal lobby was generating goose pimples by the yard, and while I miss the familiar faces of the coal lobby, I welcome back into the Hall of the House various Members whose absence yesterday I presume was purely coincidental, and had no connection with the fact that 446 was pending. Anyhow the Members are back, the coal lobby is gone, and we now legislate with all our legislative supremacy and legal supremacy. Coal is out, wages are in. That was the issue yesterday and it is the issue today.

I want to say that this question is wide open, and so far as this side is concerned, I want to compare the position and state of mind with the state of mind of the other side of the House. The Members over here can vote as they please, but I dare fifteen on the other side to vote as they please. They better vote as they have been told. This bill is a sugarcoat for a bitter dose.

I appreciate the position of the members of the minority who happen to live in districts in which the organized mine workers comprise the principal part of the population. The high command of the miners says "support this bill." I believe that the high command of the miners is wrong, but I also know that it doesn't ordinarily happen when orders come from John L. Lewis down through the ranks that they are disobeyed. I submit that John L. handles the miners with as stern a hand as the gentleman from Montgomery controls the gentleman on the other side. I wish we could have arranged a conference between the two to settle this issue; it would be worth a chance. The issue is "coal out and wages in." Because of that my personal opinion remains the same; I am opposed to this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, after my many years in this House of Representatives that is the first time that I have been hit below the belt.

I want to say to you Members here that I talk to every lobbyist that comes and talks to me, whether they be superintendents of schools—regardless of who they are I have an open ear, and I want to say to my friend Mr. Andrews this afternoon that the lobbyists for the coal operators have a perfect right to come and ask me to support a bill, the same as the superintendents of schools; that anybody has the right to come and ask me to support a bill.

I might say to you that I fought yesterday in support of my friend Andrews and his amendments to this bill, and I fight just as hard today. As I told you yesterday I would have put the bill on the Governor's desk with the amendments in it, but I say it comes with ill grace to even innuenduate that the coal operators asked me to support the bill, and that is why I get up and made this statement. My friends I will ask you again to support this bill, not in the interests of the coal operators but in the interest of justice.

Mr. ANDREWS. I didn't say anything of the kind.

Mr. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I deeply regret that I have to take the floor on this bill. I had fully intended to vote for this bill and to say nothing more about it, but it is ironic that the first shot in this session should be levelled at the head of John L. Lewis. I didn't know he was an issue in this bill.

I am for this bill for a very obvious reason. I do not believe that any one in this Hall would even remotely suspect that I am a coal operator or in any way connected with the management side of the coal industry. I have had the privilege and the honor for a number of years to represent an organization in central Pennsylvania which represents in turn one hundred and fifty thousand coal miners of this Commonwealth, and my reason for being for this bill is a very obvious one. I am interested in the welfare of one hundred and fifty thousand coal miners in this Commonwealth.

Contrary to popular belief, the United Mine Workers of America are interested in the economy of the coal industry of this Commonwealth. There are coal miners in my district whom I represent and have the privilege and honor of representing, who have been working one or two days a week for months. There are also coal miners in the anthracite fields in this Commonwealth who have been working one or two or three days a week for months. Why is coal the only thing talked about? What is the matter with steel? I don't know of a community in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania where steel has been taxed. I don't know of a municipality in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania where electrical products have been taxed. Why is it that probably the biggest industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been singled out for taxation?

We were told here yesterday if we did not permit a tax on coal that we were not going to be able to pay our school teachers. I want to tell you this, in view of the economic situation of the coal market at the present time, if the coal market in central Pennsylvania continues to lose business to the coal fields of West Virginia as they have done in recent months, we won't have any schools at all in central Pennsylvania in the coal fields. That is the situation exactly as it is. The record reveals very clearly that in 1947 I voted against Act 481. I would much rather prefer today to be voting for its repeal. The record will reveal that yesterday I voted to take the wage tax out of this bill. I believe that I have made my record and I believe that those who have voted the same way have made their record and I stand now for the passage of this bill, in its present form.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support this bill for some of the same reasons that the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Evans, has explained. I have just had word this morning from Washington, D. C., where they are starting contract negotiations between the Coal Operator's Association and the United Mine Workers, that we have already lost three and a half million tons of coal to our surrounding states. I am fearful of the fact that if coal were not taken out of 481 we would probably lose more.

That isn't the only reason that we wanted bill 446. Yesterday we made our record; we opposed the wage tax. Under the prior Act we have no limitation of the wage tax. We have districts today that are being assessed one and a half to two percent of a wage tax, as I understand it. Under this bill it would be limited to one percent. We have districts that have a fifteen to twenty dollar per capita tax assessment, and under 446 it will be limited to ten dollars. We have districts now that are assessing under 481 amusement taxes up to forty percent, where under this act it will be reduced to ten percent; we will have a ceiling of ten percent on it.

As a member of the United Mine Workers, which I have been since 1922, I have never been any place in my life where I have been ashamed to admit it and I for one do not like the idea of having our International President's name dragged on the floor of the House. He is not an issue in this bill; he has never said a word about this bill. The man with whom I talked was Thomas Kennedy, and he was the fellow who asked us to vote for the passage of House Bill 446. Mr. Lewis, the labor leader, as far as I am concerned, is one of the most highly respected men in this country. He is not only sincere but he has done more for the United Mine Workers than any other labor leader in the country has done for any other group of men.

Mr. Speaker, I am for the passage of this type of bill, irrespective of what the coal lobby would say. I am voting for this bill, because of the fact that our Union asks us to do so. I am asking the other Members on this side of the House who are from the coal regions to do likewise.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I simply want to change the tempo of the argument and simply raise one question.

I regret that coal has been made the subject of the controversy. Those who have read the bill will read on page five that this bill prohibits "the levying or assessment of a tax on goods or articles manufactured in such political subdivisions, or the by-products of manufacturers or of miners, timber, natural resources, farm products, produce," and so forth. Now, how can the local districts maintain their local municipal services if this bill passes? Do not all these people who were granted an exemption under this bill use the same services whether it be coal, whether it be slate, whether it be lime stone or whatever it may be? We have already taken away the right of taxing wealth and placed it here in the state for taxation. Now, we come around and impoverish the local district. How can they maintain their police force? How can they maintain their schools? How can they maintain their sanitary facilities? How can they maintain their water system? How can they maintain their lighting system, if we here are going to syphon all the wealth of the Commonwealth away from the district? It seems to me this is a step in the wrong direction. I should be elated over this bill because the city of Pittsburgh is amply taken care by an exemption, but these districts will become bankrupt because we are removing from them objects of taxation from which they can procure revenue to run the municipal services which this legislature has imposed upon them. It seems to me it is a matter of great concern that this Legislature which gives life to a municipal corporation, should at the same time strangle them so that they cannot carry on the municipal services that were imposed upon them and which we demand they carry on. For these reasons I am going to vote against this piece of legislation.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I had no idea of taking any part in this controversy today, but I cannot leave go unchallenged the statement made by the Minority Floor Leader, much as I respect him. I want to say to him and to every Member of this House as far as I am concerned, John L. Lewis is the greatest labor leader this world has ever seen, and I will back him one hundred percent. I think my record of twenty-two years will show that. I have differed with him on several occasions and I have met with him once in the International Convention. I told him to his face that I would not trade the leadership of the United Mine Workers of America for anything else in the world.

Mr. Speaker, in regard to this bill, I would like to cite a few instances. There is one place in Western Pennsylvania where we were shipping three hundred and fifty thousand tons of coal up to the Great Lakes. On account of the ten cent tax on strip mine coal, those three hundred and fifty thousand tons of coal were lost to Pennsylvania and have gone to Ohio all because of the difference of eight cents a ton. That ten cent tax is what made the difference. In my own county where a township taxes strip mine coal at ten cents a ton the next township may tax it five cents. I would respectfully ask how can they manage to keep their schools going at all. Were there an overall tax on industry it would be different, but when you are going to single out one township where they have it, then another where they do not have it, then I am forced to vote for this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I happened to have made a flippant and perhaps an ill advised reference to Mr. Lewis. I think that these indignant gentlemen in these strenuous times have lost their sense of humor. I certainly said nothing concerning Mr. Lewis. Neither did I say anything concerning any Member of this House and I specifically pointed out that members who represent special interests would vote for this bill.

However, the point that the gentleman from Allegheny makes is the point that has been constantly in my mind I say, and I say it advisedly that coal is being used as a bellwether to secure an exemption for all of the other industries that are seeking to escape taxation. These other industries,—the steel industry is a prosperous industry, storing up its surplus; the utilities are prosperous concerns. The other exemptions that are granted are not in the position of the coal industry. So they frame a bill based upon the weakness of the coal industry to secure the exemption for these other industries that are at the very height of prosperity. I say that they do not love the coal industry, their hearts go out to the steel industry, to the construction industry, to the electrical industry and to the other sources of possible taxation that are escaping because of the tax burden that has been placed upon coal.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, the fires that have been burning on this side evidently have failed to shed light on the gloom and the fog that took place last night on the measure. I simply want to take this opportunity to point out to some of the Members on the other side who protest their desire to voice their opposition to a wage tax on nonresidents, that under this measure there is nothing to prevent any political subdivision from passing local ordinances which will place a tax on the wages of residents and on non-residents of those political subdivisions, and those who attempt to defend their action of yesterday ought to keep that in mind.

Mr. MUSTO. Mr. Speaker, I had no intention to enter into the discussion on the bill before the House, but due to the fact that there have been so many issues mentioned, I want to clear my position upon bill 446. I want each and every Member within the hearing of my voice to know that I hold no malice against any individual who may favor a tax bill which provides for a tax on nonresidents. The wage tax is left in that bill which gives the privilege to tax to petty politicians who are in office in our local communities, and I want each and every of of you to know that when I vote "no" on this bill it is for the sole purpose that the wage earner's pocket is being entered by petty politicians within their community.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to debate any further on this bill. All the debate that is necessary on this side of the House was made yesterday. We ask that this side of the House support this bill, based upon the argument of yesterday. I do want to point out an error in the statement of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, that this bill specifically prevents a levying of a wage tax on non-residents for school purposes.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to point out so that the record will be clear that this bill provides that this limitation on non-residents shall apply only to school districts of the second, third and fourth class. We just want the record clear.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I told you yesterday that Act 481 which received No. 800 at this Session, and which passed at the last Session of the Legislature, is the cause of all the debate today. I said at that time that rather than saying in the bill that the municipalities shall have the right to tax anything that the state did not tax, we should have compelled them to tax everything that the state did not tax. Then we would not have found ourselves in the condition we are today, and coal possibly would not be carrying the load of the bill.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. WEISS filed the following reasons for his vote:

I am voting "aye" and filing the following reasons: Although I am definitely opposed to the wage tax and have so voted and am not in full accord with the treatment being given to school districts under this bill and also the fact that Public Utilities are exempt from their fair share of taxation, yet some of the provisions are commendable and are a big improvement over the present act in effect. Further if this bill (House Bill 446) is defeated, Act 481 would still be in effect. Better than having Act 481 in effect, I am voting for this bill.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, after examining the record of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I find that I was somewhat hasty in my remarks because in reading the statement of the gentleman I find that he did not hit below the belt. He said that my constituents had already been taken care of by the coal operators, and not, as I have taken it, that the coal operators had talked to me first, and I wish to apologize to the gentleman from Cambria.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 286, as follows:

Within fifteen days after the adoption of the budget the director of accounts and finance shall file a copy of the same in the office of the Department of Internal Affairs

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERTSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson, if this bill is connected with the series of bills changing the fiscal year.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, 563 has nothing to do whatsoever with the fiscal year. It is not a part of the package and it merely determines the percentages of the budget. It has nothing to do with the fiscal year.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—1

Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 566, as follows:

An Act to further amend section one thousand three hundred five and one thousand three hundred nine of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by further amending the adoption and alteration of budgets

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Sections one thousand three hundred five and one thousand three hundred nine of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" as reenacted and amended by the act approved the tenth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1621) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1305 Preparation of Budget (a) During the month of January a proposed budget or annual estimate of revenues and expenditures shall be prepared for all funds in a manner designated by the council Said budget shall reflect as nearly as possible the estimated revenues and expenditures of the borough for the year for which the budget is prepared It shall be unlawful to prepare and advertise notice of a proposed budget when the same is knowingly inaccurate Where upon any revision of the budget it appears that the estimated expenditures in the adopted budget will be increased more than ten per cent in the aggregate or more than twenty-five per cent in any individual item over the proposed budget it shall be presumed that the tentative budget was inaccurate and such budget may not be legally adopted with any such increases therein unless the same is again advertised once as in the case of the proposed budget and an opportunity afforded to taxpayers to examine the same and protest such increases The budget shall be prepared on a uniform form prepared and furnished as hereinafter provided The proposed budget shall be kept on file with the borough secretary and by him be made available for public inspection for a period of ten days

Section 1309 Modification of Budget Supplemental Appropriations and Transfers The council in its reasonable discretion may by motion modify the budget after its final adoption New appropriations supplementary appropriations and transfers from one appropriation to another may be made during the fiscal year either before or after the expenditure is authorized or ratified after the expenditure is made provided it is within the current year's revenues or the money therefor promptly made available through borrowing as allowed by law However when a transfer of over five per cent of an appropriation item is made within a fund or when a transfer of over five per cent of the total appropriation to a fund is made from said fund to another fund an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the council shall be required

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 566 on Page 2 says that "said budget shall reflect as nearly as possible the estimated revenues and expenditures." On line 14 it says: "It shall be unlawful to prepare and advertise notice of a proposed budget when the same is knowingly inaccurate." In other words, Mr. Speaker it is presumed that council in a borough is already guilty by passing a bad budget.

On Page 3 at the bottom it provides "However, when a transfer of over five percent of an appropriation item is made within a fund or when a transfer of over five percent of the total appropriation to a fund is made from said fund to another fund." If you turn over to Page 4 Mr. Speaker, it says "an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the council shall be required." The Borough Association is against Senate Bill 566 and we feel that instead of the two-thirds vote it should be left to a majority vote because in cases where you have a split council in the borough you would have a tough time getting two-thirds of the members in council to vote on a change, and I would like to have the members vote "no" on the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Article XII

General Rules

The following general rules shall be observed in every mine to which this act applies

* * * * *

Rule 40 At every shaft or slope in which provision is made in this act for lowering and hoisting persons a headman and footman shall be designated by the superintendent or foreman to be at their proper places from the time that persons begin to descend until all the persons who may be at the bottom of said shaft or slope when quitting work shall be hoisted Such headman and footman shall personally attend to the signals and see that the provisions of this act in respect to lowering and hoisting persons in shafts or slopes shall be complied with Provided That in slopes where persons are hoisted and lowered and where the tops of such slopes are in clear view of the engineer in charge of the hoisting machinery and where signaling stations or bell buttons are installed along the slope in such manner that the engineer may be promptly signaled to stop the trip in case of need the footman may accompany the persons ascending or descending the slope and personally perform such duties as are imposed by this act upon the headman and footman The signaling stations or bell buttons shall be installed at convenient points along the slope as prescribed by the mine inspector but in no case shall such signaling stations be separated by more than one hundred (100) feet excepting in such cases where it would be unsafe to use the signaling system because of the pitch of the slope Provided further That a headman and footman need not be employed in such cases where a shaft is fitted with an elevator operated by a person employed for that purpose and constructed in such manner that the top and bottom of the shaft is fitted with doors or gates controlled by the elevators and where the elevator contains all such safety features as are now or may hereafter be commonly used in the operation and installation of elevators

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, there are some good provisions in the bill but there is one that we do not like too well, as we are afraid it is going to eliminate one man in certain mines, and so we ask the Members of the House to vote against the bill.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. BLOOM, MILLIKEN, ROBERTSON and CLENDENNING offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unaimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 28, 1949.

Yesterday, a former member of this House and a friend of many of the present members, was highly honored by His Excellency, the Governor, who selected him to fill the post of additional law judge of the thirty-second judicial district created by the act of April 21, 1949 (Act No. 156).

First elected to the House as a Representative of the second district of Delaware County in 1938, Arthur P. Bretherick was re-elected in 1940 and 1942. On September 13, 1943, he resigned to run for the office of Register of Wills of Delaware County which post he has held to the present day.

Never having attended a high school or college, he studied law and obtained his law degree by attending night classes at Temple University Law School and was associated for over twenty-eight years with the law office of the late Frances Shunk Brown as office boy, clerk, stenographer, secretary, office manager and attorney.

His elevation to the bench of Delaware County is a just and merited reward for a man who was determined to become a lawyer and who achieved his goal after many hard years up the ladder of success; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives offer its sincere congratulations to the Honorable Arthur P. Bretherick upon his elevation to the bench of Delaware County and its best wishes for a successful career as a jurist; and be it further

Section 1 Sections six eight and nine of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1095) entitled "An act providing for the regulation of mining of anthracite coal by the open pit or strip mining method and for the conservation and improvement of lands affected directly or indirectly by such mining requiring operators to register pay a license fee and secure a permit to engage in strip mining and file a bond conditioned for compliance with this act requiring backfilling of stripping pits and leveling and planting lands affected to prevent erosion and the pollution of waters and to protect public health safety and welfare conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Mines and the Department of Forests and Waters providing for appeals and imposing penalties and making appropriations" are hereby amended to read as follows

Such bond shall be signed by the operator and a corporate surety licensed to do business in the Commonwealth Provided however That in lieu of a surety bond the operator may file a collateral bond secured by cash in the form of a certified or cashier's check or United States Government securities The cash deposited or the par value of such United States Government securities shall be equal to the amount of the required bond and shall be held upon the same terms and conditions

The Secretary of Mines shall upon receipt of any such deposit of cash or securities immediately deposit the same with the State Treasurer whose duty it shall be to receive and hold the same in the name of the Commonwealth for the purpose for which such deposit is made The State Treasurer shall at all times be responsible for the safe-keeping of such deposits

Section 9 Upon receipt of such annual report the Secretary of Mines shall make an investigation of the operation and shall charge the area of land actually affected by strip mining during the year for which said report is filed against the bond or deposit filed by the operator at the rate of [two hundred dollars ($200)] three hundred dollars ($300) per acre of the area of land affected but in no case shall the bond or deposit retained by the Secretary of Mines be less than [two thousand dollars ($2000)] three thousand dollars ($3000) Should the area of land actually affected exceed the estimate made by the operator at the time of the application for the permit the operator shall file an additional bond at the rate of [two hundred dollars ($200)] three hundred dollars ($300) per acre of the area of land affected over and above his estimate Provided That an additional bond need not be filed where the number of acres of land actually affected multiplied by [two hundred dollars ($200)] three hundred dollars ($300) does not exceed the sum of [two thousand dollars ($2000)] three thousand dollars ($3000) If the work contemplated by the permit and bond be not completed but the area of land actually affected by strip mining during the year is less than the estimate the Secretary shall issue a release of the excess of the bond or deposit upon which liability has not been charged as aforesaid Provided That in no case shall any bond or deposit be released or reduced to an amount less than [two thousand dollars ($2000)] three thousand dollars ($3000)

Section 18.1 Where one operator succeeds another at any uncompleted operation either by sale assignment lease or otherwise the Secretary of Mines release the first operator from all liability under this act as to that particular operation. Provided however That both operators have registered and have otherwise complied with the requirements of this act and the successor operator assumes as part of his obligation under this act all liability for grading planting and covering the face of unmined coal on the area mined by the former operator.

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 669, entitled:

An Act conferring additional powers on the Joint State Government Commission and its committees and authorizing the commission to supervise and regulate the exercise of legislative powers by administrative agencies of the Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the Minority Floor Leader is suffering with a terrific summer cold. It was his intention to speak on behalf of this bill. However, since the motion to drop from the calendar has been made I presume we are circumscribed in what we may be able to say, and perhaps will have to confine our remarks to the motion. He has asked me to speak for him.

I told him this morning that I was against the bill. So, I find myself in a peculiar position, of having to speak for the bill for our Minority Floor Leader, and speaking for myself against the bill. I am somewhat in the position that I cannot discharge the duties that have been placed upon me. I have tried to do whatever I can for the Minority Floor Leader, but he has placed a responsibility upon me that I cannot discharge. However, Mr. Speaker I am going to make his speech first, so that I will be sure to get that in. I have the right to choose which speech I shall make first. Mr. Speaker, will you recognize the Minority Floor Leader in absentia?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will do so.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the Minority Floor Leader feels, and I believe he is in good company, that these administrative boards have set themselves up somewhat as quasi Gestapo agencies. They have arrogated to themselves a certain amount of authority which has not been delegated to them. They have cemented themselves behind that authority. They are not amenable to suggestions from the Members of the General Assembly, and he feels that the time has come in this Commonwealth that this General Assembly should rip out and withdraw from these agencies the carte blanche authority that has been delegated to them.

For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, had the gentleman been able to speak, he would have asked this House to oppose this motion and to pass this bill.

Mr. Speaker, if you will recognize me, I want to say that the Minority Floor Leader is all right if he were constitutional, but this bill is an unconstitutional delegation of power, and I join with the Majority Leader in asking that it be dropped from the calendar. I cannot conceive that anyone would bring into this Legislature such a preposterous and arbitrary piece of legislation. Not only should it be dropped from the calendar but, if possible, it should be wiped entirely off the record.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not think I have any cold this morning. This little particular bill that we have here that Mr. Brunner wants to drop from the calendar, has been one of my pet hobbies since I have been in the Legislature. I have been saying that these boards, commissions and department heads have made all kinds of rules and regulations. In fact, Mr. Speaker, some three or four years ago we did try to set up some kind of a system whereby we would have some rules and regulations. I don't know what happened to it; I don't see much about it. It was good on paper.

Mr. Brown, the gentleman from Allegheny, says that it is a disgrace to bring in such a bill. Mr. Brown is an attorney. I would be perfectly willing to pass this bill and let the courts decide on whether or not it is constitutional. We have passed many other bills and the courts have made their decisions with respect to them.

The trouble with these departments, these boards and commissions is that they make rules and regulations that are not consistent with the laws passed by the Legislature, and when it affects the mass of the people, it is nobody's business and nobody does anything about it. If they make a rule or regulation that affects some big interest, they immediately take it to court and they change that rule or regulation, but in regard to rules and regulations of these boards that affect the average individual, the everyday citizen, there is nothing done for their protection, and I think that a bill like this should not be dropped from the calendar, for the simple reason that we will have somebody there in the interests of the people, and I say we should vote down this motion.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I certainly agree with the Minority Floor Leader and with the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett. I think that the bill is at least a step in the right direction towards correcting some evils which we all recognize are present.

I am not a lawyer. Mr. Brown has suggested that the Act might be unconstitutional, but I would suggest to the Members of this House that I have been a member of the Joint State Government Commission and there are other lawyers besides Mr. Brown on the Joint State Government Commission, who have given the opinion that this is constitutional and will meet the test of constitutionality and I certainly do not think we should drop the bill from the calendar at this time. I think we should have an opportunity to vote on it, giving them the right to express their viewpoints as to whether or not we should delegate some of our power to the Joint State Government Commission, so that at least we can have an arm of our branch, an arm of the General Assembly, which would keep watch over the things that are being done by the various administrative bodies in this Commonwealth, and I urge every Member of this House to vote against the motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I happen to be a member of the Executive Committee of the Joint State Government Commission. I have no personal objection to the objectives of a measure such as this. I am personally convinced that the measure being considered by this House is unconstitutional. Mr. Speaker, I desire to refer to the fact that I took my oath on the first day of the Session that I would uphold the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

It is my personal opinion, as it is Mr. Brown's that this measure is unconstitutional and it is for that reason that I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar. In the event that the motion is defeated, and it is entirely up to the Membership to do so, the merits of the bill can be discussed and voted upon. I recognize that the sponsor of the bill is trying to impress upon the Members, directly or indirectly, the necessity for this measure's going through. The gentleman is a good friend of mine, but when I recognize and believe that a bill is unconstitutional, I think that it is my duty as a Member of this House to call that fact to the attention of the membership.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, sometime recently during the Session which we are now concluding I believe that this House acted on the General State Authority bill by allowing the Minority Leader as well as the Majority Leader to sit on the General State Authority.

Not too long ago in this very same House I believe the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. McMillen, spoke very nicely about a bill in reference to the Aeronautics Commission, which also permitted the appointment of a minority and majority member, as far as discussion is concerned. How can we intelligently know the problems that are coming before us unless we have someone on these advisory boards to come back and report to us in an advisory manner what is going on.

As far as Senator Kephart, the sponsor is concerned, I do not believe he would try to draft a bill that was unconstitutional, especially since the Senator happens to be the son of a former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and he would certainly know what he is doing. If Senator Kephart drew this bill, I feel he knew what he was doing and I believe he thought it was a constitutional bill. I feel that this is the time to get started and we ought to vote down this motion and pass the bill.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, there seems to be quite a difference of opinions on the merits or demerits of this measure and I am not so sure myself as to the constitutionality of this particular type of legislation. We have had similar acts, and more drastic acts on the books of the state for years. They were never enforced and for some reason they were repealed two years ago. The constitutionality of those acts was never questioned. I am willing to leave that question up to the judgment of my good friend, Mr. Brunner, together with my good friend from Allegheny, not to vote on unconstitutional matters. This should be decided once and for all, and I would ask my friends on the floor of the House to vote against this motion.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot defend the Minority Floor Leader and myself at the same time, so, I will have to drop him; he had better go out and consult his books.

I simply want to answer,—and I shall not take a great deal of the time of the House,—the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Weiss. He has confused the question; he asks the House to appoint certain Members of the General Assembly ex-officio, which means without any power at all.

This bill on page 2, the first paragraph,—I am not speaking on the constitutional question, and if you want to leave that to the courts, it is all right with me. This bill provides:

"To supervise and regulate the administrative boards, commissions, departments, and other agencies of the Commonwealth, except political subdivisions, in the exercise of the Legislative power delegated to them by the General Assembly."

Now, if you want to determine that that is unconstitutional, I submit to you that the Joint State Government Commission, of which I have the honor to be a Member, is only a fact finding body and could not possibly supervise and regulate all administrative boards, commissions, departments and other agencies of this Commonwealth. If they had the power to do it, it would create a situation in this Commonwealth of such confusion that has never been known before, and because of that, even if you are satisfied that the bill is constitutional, it should be defeated and the motion should prevail.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, this bill, as I see it, and read it, fosters veto power over all boards and commissions,—regulatory power over all boards and commissions. I, like my friends, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Homer Brown, who represents two people, am split on it. As a Legislator, I can agree with the principle in the bill, but as a sportsman I do not, because as a sportsman I will never agree to any one excepting the Game Commission and the Fish Commission having anything to do with how the sportsmen's money is spent or what we spend it for. They are the only independent commissions of the state of Pennsylvania; we raise our own funds and pay our own way; we ask no favor from any one, and our fund under this bill would be subject to action from another division of the Government. Therefore, I am absolutely opposed to that phase of it.

But, Mr. Speaker, as a Legislator, as I say, I am split. However, I would vote for the bill because I believe there are many other departments where they need it; where they need an advisory committee who breathe down the backs of their necks in order to make it possible for the Legislature to have an even break in the administration of their departments. But, Mr. Speaker, regarding the fish and game funds, this bill is no good.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Speaker, in view of the unusual situation which has arisen on this side of the House, Council representing the Minority Leader having abandoned the ship in midstream, he wishes to advise me and ask that I advise the House that he has retained now as Chief Counsel the gentleman from Venango, Mr. McKinney.

I will have to join with the Majority Leader and my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, in my position on this measure. So far as concerns the laudable intent of this measure, I join wholeheartedly in its purpose, but I believe that the purpose and intent of this measure if it becomes law in Pennsylvania will create a situation compared to which this State has never seen anything like it. So far as it concerns the practice in the past of appointing some Member of the House to sit upon any of these boards, commissions, or agencies as an ex-officio Member, I say that is entirely proper. That is what we have been doing in the past, but the purpose and effect of this bill, if it becomes law, is to vest in the Joint State Government Commission the power, as Mr. Brown has pointed out, in Section 1 of this bill, to supervise and regulate all administrative boards, commissions and departments.

Section two of this bill is the laudable part of this measure and one with which I agree.

"To designate one of its members or some other Member of the General Assembly, to sit without vote on any board, commission or agency, to observe the manner in which legislative powers delegated to such agency by the General Assembly are being exercised."

This is delegating to the Joint State Government Commission authority which I believe is patently unconstitutional on its face, and as a member of the Bar of Pennsylvania I cannot agree with this bill. Therefore I am going to oppose its passage and support the motion to drop the bill from the calendar.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I have just sent down for a copy of the bill. I would like to read it. I am not in a position to state whether the act is constitutional or unconstitutional, but I want to impress upon the Members of the House that on the Joint State Government Commission there are other lawyers who are certainly in sharp difference with the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Fayette on the problem of constitutionality, and also the position which is taken by our Floor Leader, the gentleman from Montgomery.

I would like to direct the attention of the House to the fact that the bill calls for the Joint State Government Commission only to supervise, in so far as it relates to the legislative power, and that nothing contained in the act shall be construed to interfere with the executive or judicial powers guaranteed by the Constitution of Pennsylvania. I submit to the House that nothing the Commission could possibly do would interfere with the quasi judicial, administrative or executive powers of any board or any commission in the Commonwealth. We are the elected representatives of the people and we are trying to give them the right to put the complaint about the handling of commissions in some proper form where they may be investigated. I think the bill is just and proper and I think it should be enacted into law.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BROWN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker there is one particular angle of this matter which occurred to me, in which I am very much interested. Would the gentleman state in his opinion, that school districts and local school boards are both political subdivisions?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would say that question is one of the questions which raised a doubt in my mind. The Supreme Court has referred to the school districts as agencies of the Commonwealth. Under the Article of the Constitution which places the responsibility on the General Assembly to enact an educational system, I am of the opinion that a school district is an agency of the Commonwealth and I believe it can be construed to mean that the Joint State Government Commission would attempt to regulate the school districts of the Commonwealth.

Mr. SEYLER. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, if that is the case, if there is any possibility that the action of the local school boards would come under the provisions of this act and be subjected to the supervision and regulation of the Joint State Government Commission, then it is my opinion that we should vote against this bill, and we should vote in favor of the motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make this one observation. One of the sections gives to the Joint State Government Commission power to supervise and regulate. So Mr. Speaker, that is an unconstitutional delegation of power to the Joint State Government Commission, therefore, we should vote against this bill and we should vote to drop it.

The measure says "regulate." To regulate means to issue an order and that would mean that the Joint State Government Commission could issue orders to other boards and commissions. We have no power under the bill today as to how it shall regulate. That is definitely unfair and it is very clear in my mind and there is no question in my mind that that is unconstitutional.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I just want to add this, I am a Member of the Bar and have been for nearly twenty years past—

Mr. Speaker, I will yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bdown, for a moment, not to act as my counsel however.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I in direct reply to the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, read an opinion of the Supreme Court as reported under the section establishing the public schools system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I quote from the opinion of the Supreme Court in 274 Pa. page 541, as follows: "A school district is an agency for the administration of an important function of the state."

I simply say that to show to the gentleman that it is not only my private opinion but here is an opinion as recorded in 274 Pa., page 541, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, as I mentioned before, as a member of the Bar for nearly twenty years past, and as a Member of this House for the past seven sessions, I might state that too often in this House, lawyers, constitutional authorities, on the floor of the House kill good legislation on the basis that it is unconstitutional, whether it is or is not. I think it is about time that the Members of the House vote on the bills, on the merits and demerits of the bills; on the basis of what is good for the people and what is good for this government, and let the courts decide when the matter comes up before them. I say this with all due respect to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, who is a very good constitutional authority, but he certainly is not the Supreme Court bench sitting on those matters. I submit that legislation of this type should not be thrown out of the window on the basis that it is unconstitutional, but the Members themselves ought to decide whether it is good or bad.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I hesitate to take up the time of the House on this matter, but a matter has been injected here by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr.

Brown, and the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, which I think is tending to confuse all of us.

The gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, asked Mr. Brown whether or not a school board is an agency of the state. Mr. Brown in his opinion stated it was, but the courts have also held that a school district is a political subdivision of this Commonwealth. You will notice, Mr. Speaker, on page two of the bill that the Joint State Government Commission is given the authority "to supervise and regulate all administrative boards, commissions, departments and other agencies of the Commonwealth, except political subdivisions." I do not believe that any person on the Joint State Government Commission would even presume to try to regulate or supervise the legislative powers of any school board. I cannot imagine anything that would be more difficult or impossible of attainment than that.

The gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Breth, also mentioned a matter which I do not believe is in line with the intent expressed in this bill. He objects to the Joint State Government Commission telling the Game and Fish Commission how to spend money for fish and game projects. I don't believe that there is any language in this bill which would lead the Joint State Government Commission to try to do such a thing. There is nothing in the intent of this bill to give the Joint State Government Commission the power to set aside the policy of the executive department. What it is intended to do is that there should be some regulation by this group through its own arm, the Joint State Government Commission, of the rule making power of these administrative agencies. As you well know, these administrative agencies sometimes make rules or regulations which are not in accordance with the law. Even though the Joint State Government Commission never tried to set aside an administrative ruling, the very fact that they have the power to do so will keep these agencies on their toes and they will scrutinize our laws more carefully, and will try to make rules and regulations in accordance with the intent set forth in the legislative acts as we have written them. I would like to see this motion to drop the bill from the calendar defeated.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, to say that I am confused is putting it mildly. After all this talk on the question of whether the bill is constitutional or not, I am afraid that certain things may occur. The other night I would say that about one hundred and sixty of us took on the cloak of experts on the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of a certain bill. I cannot help but believe that perhaps those who did not vote were the smartest because they admitted that they did not know, which in the long run sometimes is best. If this bill comes to a vote on the question of constitutionality, I would request that the Majority Whip stay in his place and be counted only once, and not be running up and down that aisle like a cheer leader to get the boys to vote on whether the bill is constitutional or not.

Mr. YAFFEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion. I think you are overlooking the practical aspects of this bill. Primarily it allows Members of the Legislature to sit on the board and determine whether or not they are acting in such a manner that they can defeat legislation passed by the Members of the Legislature who will meet again in 1951. Until such time as any of the Commissions should attempt to supervise and regulate, I doubt very much whether the constitutionality of this measure will be raised. The primary purposes, as I said before, is to supervise or have somebody sitting in on this board. I think it is a good bill and I think under the circumstances we should vote for this measure, and if necessary come back the next time and pass laws in order to see that we shall have somebody on these boards to see that they are doing what they should.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to add anything to the constitutional argument. I would only like to point out that in 1945 this Act passed this House by a vote of 207 to 1. The Act vested control in the Common Pleas Court of Dauphin County. This House has already given supervisory power of these administrative agencies of this Commonwealth to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County. House Bill 879 gave that power, not to the Joint State Government Commission, but to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, to regulate the rule making and regulatory functions of the administrative agencies of the Commonwealth. That is every bit as bad legislation as this.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Speaker, I think that the Members appreciate the seriousness of this particular piece of legislation. In my humble opinion there hasn't been before this House a measure which so vitally affects the interests of the general public of Pennsylvania as this particular bill, and it is deserving of your most serious consideration.

Section 1 of this measure, aside from the question of constitutionality, provides that the Joint State Government Commission shall have the power to supervise and regulate all the administrative agencies in connection with powers which the Legislature has delegated to these boards and commissions. The proper phraseology which is generally incorporated into Act of this kind is that they shall have these various powers, the power to make such orders and regulations to carry out the duties the General Assembly has set forth therein. Now, we are taking away from these boards and commissions and vesting it in one bureaucracy, if you like to call it that, the power to tell every agency how it shall be regulated and supervised. If you can tell me how any agency of this Commonwealth or any department or any commission on this Hill hereafter intelligently and effectively can decently operate under the provisions of this measure, with the Joint State Government Commission sitting on top by virtue of this measure, with full and complete power to tell them how they shall carry out the legislative intent vested in that particular commission, then I will support this measure.

I say to you, Members of the House, all you are doing is taking away from every commission on the Hill every vested or delegated power from the Legislature and putting it into the Joint State Government Commission and letting them tell every agency, commission or board on this Hill how it shall carry on its functions. That is the force and effect of this measure.

Notwithstanding the laudable purpose of this bill, if this Legislature merely would say that it intends to appoint one of its Members or some member of the Joint State Government Commission, with full and complete power to go into any one of these agencies to observe and report back to this House the manner in which it carries out its functions, then I would support this measure one hundred percent, but I see no reason why the Joint State Government Commission should have vested in it full and complete power to control every agency on the Hill and tell them how they should function and do the business they are delegated to do. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I believe in conclusion we should support this motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McKinney and Mr. Fleming, and were as follows:

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson.
The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?
Mr. ROBERTSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.
Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in order that the Members may gain information concerning the meaning of this bill as amended by Mr. Robertson yesterday, I wonder if the gentleman from Delaware would explain the effect of the amendments, and also briefly explain the meaning of this bill.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, the amendment which I put in yesterday to House Bill 671, if the gentleman will look at the bill, he will see that all of the fiscal year provisions have been stricken out of the bill. That was the purpose of the amendment. The remainder of the bill is merely an amendment to the 1947 Tax Claim Bureau Law, which permitted certain counties to come under the Act, and also permitted an appeal in certain cases. It merely is an amendment to the Tax Claim Bureau Law.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Delaware and I ask the Members to vote for this bill.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state it.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, we have the unhappy situation arising that our calendars have been removed, and in regard to the bills that we are acting on, I might say we cannot read the bills and we are therefore lost.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guarnieri, this is a reprint of the bill which was placed on the desks this morning.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I notice that some of the Members don't have calendars. There are two on my desk, maybe some of the other Members who don't have one may get one here.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guarneri, there is nothing in order but the calling of the roll. Did the gentleman request recognition before the Chair ordered the roll call?

Mr. GUARNIERI. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will accept the gentleman's word, and if there are no objections the Chair will withdraw its direction that the roll be called and will recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to debate this measure and delay the House. Time is very short but I want to make an observation on this bill.

It is my opinion that there is a question here under Section 310 of the bill on Page 17, as to the constitutionality of the bill.

To my mind there may be something that is unconstitutional, wherein it allows the Governor to determine as to who may or may not be exempt, particularly on Page 5 of the bill, which says:

"The enrollment shall be accomplished and exemptions from liability to perform militia duty shall be determined and established in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Governor."

That to my mind, Mr. Speaker, under the decisions of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, does not set up proper standards to determine liability from exemption of service. That to my mind raises a question of constitutionality, and for that reason I believe there is a constitutional objection to this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, these are what are known as the liquor bills. Now, the only objection that I have to these bills is that I was a Member of the Legislature some time ago when we passed legislation setting up the quota law, and to my own personal mind,—I don't want to speak for the other Members who were here at that time,—but as for myself, the intent was that clubs were not within the quota law. These two bills would give the right to the Superior Court to make that decision.

My mind was made up at that time and I am still of the same opinion. Therefore, I do not believe it is necessary that I should vote for bills that would give the Superior Court the right to say what my intentions were at the time, and for that reason I will vote against these two bills.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks will state it.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, would be it be possible to speak on Bill 735, Page 37 and also Senate Bill 736 on Page 38 of the calendar, inasmuch as the two bills are practically identical?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that it would expedite the business of the House, and without objection the gentleman will have that privilege. The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, these two bills in my opinion represent a milestone in the legislative liquor history of this Legislature. As I mentioned the other night, when we were discussing amendments to Senate Bill 736, this is the first time since 1939 that we are deliberately trying to do something about the confusion that has arisen concerning the interpretation of the liquor laws, as to whether or not clubs are in or out of the quota. These two bills allow an appeal to the Superior Court from decisions of the Liquor Control Board on licensing cases and also in suspension and revocation cases.

I do not want to burden you again with some of the things that I said the other night, but it is true that there was a great deal of confusion at the end of the 1939 Session, when the limitation law was passed. That confusion has resulted in many county courts holding that clubs come within the quota, and many of them holding that they are without the quota. This definitely creates disrespect for the law.

Within a very short time in my opinion there will be an appeal made to the Superior Court on this question and this question will then be determined because of the fact that many of the Courts of Common Pleas in this Commonwealth after a thorough study of this legislation have ruled differently, and because of the fact that the Superior Court of Pennsylvania will have to resolve this question itself and must do so after studying the various decisions that have already been handed down.

I would like at this time to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, concerning the 1939 limitation law.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether he was a Member of this House during the Session of 1939.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. I was, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, was the gentleman a member of the Conference Committee appointed by the House on the question of the passage of the so-called limitation law relative to liquor licenses in Pennsylvania?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. I believe, Mr. Speaker, if my memory serves me right, at that time I was.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman inform the Members of this House whether there was any intention on the part of the conferees on this bill to place clubs within the quota law?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield so that I may refer the question to the Speaker as to whether I am permitted to answer that question or not,—may I defer to the Speaker under a point of order whether I have permission to answer the gentleman from Berks as to what the intention of the conferees was on the quota law of 1939? If I am in order, I will answer the question. If I am not in order, I will not answer the question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would suggest that without permission of the remainder of the members of the Committee on the part of the House, the gentleman should refrain from divulging the intentions and discussions of the Committee.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I give my own personal opinion, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may state his own personal opinion.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Berks will ask my personal opinion, I will be happy to answer his question.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I simply desire to have the gentleman from Allegheny state his own personal opinion of his intentions at the time the conference report on the limitation law was enacted in 1939.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that question, it was my personal opinion when we drafted the conferees' report, that both hotels and clubs were not within the quota limitation. I was the most surprised man in the world after reading the first decision, which I think arose in Lackawanna County, to find out that due to the interpretation of the Judge who was then presiding, clubs were within the quota.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, we cannot hear the debate back here.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I am not sure whether I can pick up the continuity of what I was saying but it all boils down to this, I was surprised when I found that the Courts of Lackawanna County had ruled, I believe, that the clubs were not within the quota, and the Attorney General, who I believe now is an honored member of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, had ruled in his opinion that the clubs under this Act passed by this Legislature were within the quota.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask the gentleman whether prior to the meeting of that conference committee in 1939 he personally discussed that particular legislation with other Members of this House who were not on the conference committee.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I am certain that I did, and I am certain that I imparted to them that the Conference Committee report in my opinion, that was being adopted, provided that hotels and clubs were out of the quota.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask the gentleman whether he attended that conference committee and joined in the report with the thought in mind that he was representing what were the wishes of the membership of this House in excluding clubs from the quota.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I have tried to bring out this information solely for the purpose of assisting, if possible, the Superior court of Pennsylvania when it comes to deciding the meaning of the 1939 quota law. I realize quite clearly that what we might have had in mind may have been different from what was said by the Act of 1939, but I reiterate that many of the finest Common Pleas Judges of this Commonwealth have ruled that clubs are not under the quota law. However, to those Members here who would like to see licenses granted to veteran's organizations, and their clubs procure liquor licenses upon application, let me remind them whether the Superior Court rules that clubs are within the quota or not, this will bring the matter to a definite conclusion, and if the Superior Court, after considering the question, comes to the conclusion that clubs are within the quota law, we will then have a definite decision to guide us in the future.

For ten years now there has been no clear cut decision, and today it doesn't look as if there ever will be. But, if the Superior Court shall rule that they are within the quota law, you will then know what your constituents want, and when you come back here again you can decide how to vote, for or against putting the clubs in the quota or taking them out.

I would like to point out one other matter before I conclude my remarks. If a person is aggrieved by a decision of the Board he may go to his County Court and he may plead his case there with the knowledge that if the Board has abused its discretion or if it has been unfair to him, he may expect to find justice in his local county court. This provision has been taken advantage of on many occasions, and while it may be argued that this will transfer from the Board to the courts the right to enforce the liquor laws, I say that there will be no abuse on the part of the courts of this provision. If the Board has fairly made out a case against an applicant or against a person violating the laws, certainly the courts will not set aside that decision of the Board. The judges of the courts reside in our respective counties, and they know the circumstances and conditions, and I think we will get more justice as far as licensees are concerned, under this act than we would get under our prior legislation. I would like to see all the Members of this House vote for these two bills. I think they will greatly improve our liquor legislation in the state of Pennsylvania and will bring about a solution to a perplexing and annoying problem, and I ask all of you to vote for these two bills.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Berks feel that by passing these two measures and giving the decision to the court, that the men sitting on the Superior Court have more knowledge than the County Courts?

Mr. READINGER. I don't believe so, no, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that he would much rather have all his decisions come from the Superior Court or from the lower courts?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, that is a rather difficult question to answer, but the answer I would give him is, the Superior Court could not possibly determine all the matters which must be determined by the Common Pleas Court, because there are so many of those. But the Superior Court, as the gentleman knows, is a court of appellate jurisdiction and they are called upon to either correct the decisions of the lower courts or in some cases to reconcile the decisions of the lower courts. My purpose, as I stated, was to put into the hands of some other group the power to say what the laws of Pennsylvania mean on that subject.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me, and will he admit that seventy percent of the county courts now eliminate the clubs from the quota act?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, it is my recollection that about twenty-eight of the county courts have held that clubs are without the quota act and twenty-four or twenty-five have held that they are within the quota. That, therefore, would not represent seventy percent.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, if the Superior Court rules that clubs are definitely within the quota act, that finishes all of them, is that right?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, that would preclude any further club from applying or obtaining a license to sell liquor.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. One more question, Mr. Speaker. If these two bills pass, would they affect the renewal of any liquor license or any club license or any hotel license within an area of three hundred feet of a park, school or church by the Superior Court? In other words, Mr. Speaker, if today a club is situated within three hundred feet of a park, church, playground or school, and if on the application for a renewal of license some organization or individual would appeal the decision of the Liquor Board on renewal to the Superior Court, could the Superior Court also decide on that under any one of these two measures?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would answer the gentleman by referring him to page three of Senate Bill 735, or Senate Bill 736, Section 7 of the act which is now begin amended, relating to license hearings and appeals from granting or refusal of license.

Line 18 on page 3 of Senate Bill 735 contains these words:

"At such hearing the board shall present its reasons for its refusal or withholding of license renewal or transfer thereof in considering the renewal of license.

The board shall not refuse any such renewal on the basis of the propriety of the original issuance or any prior renewal of such license."

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, that says the board shall not refuse the renewal, but could some individual on the issuance of that renewal take it into the Superior Court? What I am interested in is the proposition of the clubs or maybe one or two men, or an organization that has a liquor license today that would be within three hundred feet of a park, school or church. On their application the Liquor Board grants the renewal, but under either one of these bills could some other individual organization take the granting of that renewal to the Superior Court for a decision?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would say that if such individual would attempt to do so, he wouldn't even get there. He might get there, but he wouldn't stay there very long. I would like to read from pages three and four, Senate Bill 735, as follows:

"In considering the renewal of a license the board shall not refuse any such renewal on the basis of the propriety of the original issuance or any prior renewal of such license."

The bill then goes on to provide for an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas or Court of Quarter Sessions, and from that Court to the Superior Court. Obviously, if this Legislature tells the Board that it may not refuse to renew a license because it may have been within three hundred feet of a school, church or playground, which may have been granted before that time, if we would tell the board not to do that, obviously the Board cannot insist.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, does it also say that the Legislature is telling the courts that they cannot pass on it?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the courts can pass on any laws which come properly before them, but the courts cannot state that any section of this bill which has become a law shall not be effective. If the Board does not refuse the license and somebody takes an appeal, the court will certainly not hold that the Board is incorrect, because it is stated in the bill that the board shall do that.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean that it would be impossible to the Superior Court's decision under either bill on a renewal of any license? For instance, if I objected to the Liquor Board issuing any license to a club within three hundred feet of a park, that question could not be taken to the Superior Court under these bills?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman speaking of a renewal?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would say, they could not successfully prosecute an appeal to any court on that ground.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, it so happens that I too was a Member of a 1939 legislature when the quota law was passed, and we were of the opinion at that time when the bill was passed that clubs were out of the quota.

The ruling came down, of course, as Mr. Brown says, in the Lackawanna County court, and the result was that the clubs were thrown up into the air. Sometimes a court ruled that they were within the quota and sometimes that they were not. As a result of that, we had introduced into this Legislature in 1941 by the late John Baker of Allegheny County, and myself a bill to take clubs out of the quota law. We had an agreement at that time with Governor James that he would sign the bill if we introduced it, but the Senate amended it to such a degree that they brought in any number of one man clubs, and the Governor vetoed the bill.

In my opinion these bills before us are commonly called dry bills. These bills are pointed at the clubs and I believe that the intention is to place the clubs within the quota law. My reason for making this statement is that, as the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, stated, the Attorney General of 1939 had held that the clubs were within the quota law according to the 1939 Act. I believe at the present time that the gentleman who was the attorney general in 1939 is now a member of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, and that is why the dries are very active in trying to get through these laws which could give them the right to carry these cases to the Superior Court in order that they will get a ruling that clubs are within the quota law.

That is why I say we made a mistake the other evening when we turned down the gentleman from Dauphin, who tried to have placed in these bills an amendment to take care of the veterans' organizations. Once the Superior Court rules that clubs are within the quota law, we are going to close the doors in the faces of all the boys who fought in World War II. While they were away you promised them everything; we had a pot of gold for them when they would return, but today, when they want to form their own organization and they want to obtain their liquor license and be the same as other clubs who have been in existence for any number of years, we are going to say to them "No, you can't even have a clubroom in which to meet and fraternize; in which you would be able to buy yourselves and your friends a drink." That was why the other evening I voted in favor of the amendment; that is why a great many of us voted in favor of those amendments. I cannot see for the life of me how anybody in the liquor traffic could subscribe to the two bills before the House. I want to say that in all fairness to the veterans' organizations and I ask the membership on our side of the House to vote no on these bills.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, yesterday on the floor of this House, I debated against Mr. Readinger, and it was my intention at that time on the constitutional provision to have the Members of the House stand up and be counted on the question of whether or not veterans' organizations should be allowed to have a liquor license. I might say that I personally aided in setting up seventeen or eighteen AMVET organizations since the end of the war, and I am very much interested in seeing that they shall have a right to a license. I am as much interested as is Mr. Williams, the gentleman from Washington, but I am forced to agree with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, that these bills are good bills. In the first place, they are good bills in principle.

It is my opinion that this bill does not have a very good chance of taking the veterans outside of the quota law. I say that on two bases, the fact that the then Attorney General, now a member of Superior Court, I believe, would not be influenced, because I believe that that gentleman would disqualify himself for sitting on any case involving this subject, because he did have some interest in the case when it first came up.

In the second place, I think this is a very close question of law whether the clubs are or are not within the quota under the present interpretation by the Courts. I might say that the county courts in the state are about split evenly on this subject. I think there is an excellent chance of our Superior Court ruling that clubs are not within the quota. If they should rule that clubs are within the quota then I think that the Legislature would be in a position to decide the matter frankly, fully and definitely.

I might also say that these bills are not dry bills; these bills are good bills in principle. Our courts should have the opportunity to decide questions of law. Laws should be uniform, and when you do not have that uniformity of law throughout the state, you create contempt for the law and you create confusion. Therefore, as a matter of principle and also because I do believe the veterans of the state have a better chance of getting a liquor license and also because I regard these measures as good measures to control the traffic, I am going to vote in favor of the bill.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, I am not appearing now in defense of the veterans. I am not representing any dries or any wets, but I am here as a Legislator trying to see the light. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Berks think that these bills, if passed, are going to clarify the quota situation?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, very definitely they will.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, how will they clarify it?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, after they become law, if they do, if some club shall apply for a club liquor license and the Board shall refuse to grant a license and an appeal is taken to the county court of the county where the club has its headquarters, that county court will decide whether they are or are not in the quota, and an appeal will be taken by one of the two parties to the Superior Court. The Superior Court will in due course hand down a decision saying that they are in or out of the quota.

Mr. FRANK. I thank the gentleman.

That sounds very good, Mr. Speaker, but that court decision is an opinion of a group of jurists who are trying to pass on the intent of the Legislature, I believe, of 1939, when they established the quota law. I think that date is correct. I don't think perhaps in passing on that law that we should try to interpret the law, because that is the job of the courts, but the job of determining what is in the quota and what is out of the quota is our job right here, and we are ducking the issue. When I say that we are ducking the issue, I believe when the courts pass upon it, if we pass these bills, we are going to have more confusion than ever because we have now twenty-eight counties saying one thing and thirty-nine saying the other. If the courts will go through these bills that is the way they stand, then we have an equal division. We have a number of counties saying that the courts don't know what is best for us, and people lose confidence in the courts. I believe it is better for us to face the issue, because in two years we are going to have a fight, regardless of who passes on them, whether the lower or the appellate courts. We are going to have to face this issue.

I want to leave this thought with you, that if we, by even a majority of one vote decide that clubs are in or out of the quota law, the people are going to accept it with more grace because it comes from the body which under the Constitution has been chosen to make the laws, and they are willing to abide by it, than if we say to the courts, "Here you decide something that you believe to be the opinion of a group of Legislators ten years ago."

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I find myself in full and hearty accord with many of the things the gentleman has said. As I said the other night, I think this Legislature should say whether the clubs are in or out of the quota. I said it before on one or more occasions, I said it again the other night and I say it now.

There are at least four or five bills in this House in Committee, and also in the Senate, which seek to take all clubs out of the quota law, but we cannot get them out of Committee. If the gentleman will remember my remarks, even when we did get a bill through in this House that clubs were not within the quota law, during 1947, the bill died in the Senate. I reiterate that for ten years we have been trying to get a bill to say yes or no, and we have failed. That is the reason why I think these bills are good bills. They at least provide the means by which this question is going to be determined. I do not believe it is the courageous way to do it but I do think this, if a case goes to the Superior Court and the Superior Court should rule that the clubs are within the quota, you at least have your groups unified, one way or the other, because those counties which now can get club licenses, such as my own county, and there are about twenty-five others, have no particular interest in seeing that the Superior Court makes a decision on it so far as their clubs are concerned. They are the favored group. If the Superior Court rules that they are all within the quota, then that county will be in the same position as the other counties where they cannot get a license.

If the gentleman will see fit to bring the bill into the next session or have one brought in here, to put the clubs out of the quota, everybody will then have to ascertain how his county stands on the question. Then you are going to get a decision as to whether or not clubs are within or without, but today you cannot get enough members to agree to put them in or take them out. What the gentleman would like to see happen, I would like to see happen also, but it just doesn't happen.

I am not going into the subject on how the Superior Court will rule. My own personal preference is that they will rule clubs out of the quota. I have felt that way this Session and I also felt that way last Session, and I introduced bills during this Session to take them out. My viewpoint did not prevail in this Session. I certainly would like the people of the Commonwealth to respect the decisions of our courts and not come to me and other Members and say "What is the matter with the courts"? If you try to explain this matter to a licensee you will find it difficult because after the end of half an hour he begins to lose the thought you are trying to convey to him.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, I just have one thought, I would far rather have the people—I may be all wet here, but it is my own thought—I would rather have them have the poor opinion of the lower courts than our appellate courts. We are throwing into our appellate court one of the most controversial matters before us today and I do not believe it should go there. For that reason I ask the Members to vote "no" on these two bills.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, just one more word on what Mr. Readinger said. He believes that the Superior Court will rule clubs out of the quota act. I have all the faith in the world in the Liquor Control Board. I am not a lawyer, and the Liquor Control Board says that clubs are in the quota. My recollection of the bill is that it reads on the tail end of it, "except hotels." The other two words "and clubs" are not there. Any one here, a lawyer or not a lawyer, can read that there, that clubs are included in the quota act, but the lower courts of some counties say that the clubs are excluded, and, as the gentleman from Dauphin says, we have passed the buck for ten years to the lower courts. Now, we are going to get into the picture of passing the buck to the Superior Court, and you all have to admit that in the future you and I are going to have to stand up and add those two words in there. I still believe and feel like the gentleman from Dauphin when we did not have enough nerve to stand up and be counted, why stick it on the Superior Courts, and I ask that we defeat both bills.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I simply desire to make a correction. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington, has stated I made a remark that I believe the Superior Court would hold clubs without the quota. I didn't say that. I said that I hoped the Superior Court would do so. I have no idea; I have formed no opinion as to what the Superior Court will do with this issue.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Moran, Hunter and Rovanssek.

In every other county the commissioners and in every county the treasurer shall receive no additional compensation for services to the institution district. In every county the commissioners and treasurer shall be allowed their necessary expenses incurred in services for the institution district. Every county controller shall receive an allowance for expenses incurred in connection with the institution district as follows: (1) In second class counties two thousand dollars ($2000) per annum (2) In third class counties eighteen hundred dollars ($1800) per annum (3) In fourth class counties fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) per annum (4) In fifth class counties twelve hundred dollars ($1200) per annum (5) In sixth class counties one thousand dollars ($1000) per annum (6) In seventh class counties five hundred ($500) per annum and (7) In eighth class counties seven hundred dollars ($700) per annum

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective on July first one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and the additional expense allowance provided for herein shall terminate at the end of two (2) years after the effective date

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 747, Printer's No. 514, gives an increase to the County Controllers of second class counties, down to and including eighth class counties. The increases range from two thousand dollars per year for counties of the second class down to seven hundred dollars per year for counties of the eighth class, for doing nothing but signing checks for the institution districts.

We have seen quite a bit of salary raising in this Session. Some were justified and some were unjustified. Here is a case of an increase for a controller that will put his salary above the district attorney or anybody else in the county. If the controller deserved it on the basis of work performed going out to the institution district, it wouldn't be so bad, but just because he signs some checks for that institution district, to increase their salary eighteen hundred dollars or two thousand dollars, certainly does not seem right and it is not fair to the taxpayers of the counties involved.

This bill provides that

"The provisions of this Act shall become effective on July 1, 1949, and the additional expense allowance provided for herein shall terminate at the end of two years after the effective date."

We have a good controller in our county, a personal friend of mine. If he did something to justify him getting this extra money, I would be glad to favor him, but an increase of eighteen hundred dollars sounds ridiculous to me. I would say that it is high time the Legislature, even at this late hour, shall by its vote say that it does not intend passing out a bonus to the county controller of thirty-six hundred dollars for a two-year period, or four thousand dollars for a two-year period, and which over a period of two years costs the taxpayers of Pennsylvania between seventy-five thousand and one hundred thousand dollars. I ask the Members of the House to vote against a bill of this type.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, speaking on behalf of these bills, I would like to call to the attention of the Members the fact that we recently passed, I believe, in House Bill 1113, a similar increase to the Commissioners of the same counties that you are now asked to deny an increase in favor of the controllers, that is in the nature of expense for a two-year period. I do not think that the increase asked for is unreasonable, especially in view of some of the very substantial increases that we have granted to some certain officers of the Commonwealth. Inasmuch as we have already passed a measure which would give an increase to the commissioners, I now ask you to be consistent and give this increase to the county controllers of the same counties in which the commissioners will receive an increase, and I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, as far as House Bill 1113 is concerned in comparing the work of the controllers with that of the county commissioners in reference to institution districts, there is a world of difference. They go out into the various institution districts and they spend time there; they see what has to be done in reference to those districts? A controller does nothing but check the records, check the books and sign checks. In our district our county commissioners spend a day and a half or two days going into the institution districts and you can't say that a controller does the same thing. The controller does not earn this extra bonus.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is absolutely correct. He said there is a lot of difference between the work done by the commissioners and the controller. To my personal knowledge, I know that our own controller is in the office every day. Sometimes, the commissioners are and sometimes they are not. I don't know what happens in other counties but I am inclined to believe that the same situation prevails there.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, we are about to finish the calendar for this Session of the General Assembly in the House, and we are about to adjourn sine die. It is to be regretted that in the confusion which ordinarily comes with the moment of adjournment, we have on the calendar as one of the last bills, one of the most important bills presented in this Session of the General Assembly.

Senate Bill 896 separates the school districts of the first class, and makes the school district of Pittsburgh a school district First Class-A, so that we would have, if this bill passes, in Pennsylvania, five classes of school districts instead of four. This bill represents a distinct step backward. All of the Members of this House have been interested and have passed bills in an attempt to consolidate the districts in Pennsylvania, for we know that in consolidation we have uniformity, we have strength and we have efficiency. In division we have inefficiency and we have waste and we have weakness.

This bill was introduced in the Senate on April 11, 1949; was reported out on April 12; passed third reading in the Senate on April 22, and is now before us for third reading and final passage on April 28.

This bill, has not been passed upon by any educational organization interested in education in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I am not speaking now as a member of the school board of the city of Pittsburgh, of which I have the honor to be a member, but I say to you, and I say this without casting any reflection on any member of this House or any member of the Senate or any man living or dead, this bill was initiated by certain politicians without regard to the welfare of the educational system of this Commonwealth. No one has been consulted that I know of that could officially say that this is in the interest of the educational system of this Commonwealth. I think, because of that reason, unless somebody can show me a good reason why it should be done, we ought to say in no uncertain terms that we are not going to turn the clock backwards but that we are going forward in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker—

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. May I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brandon, if he will yield at this point.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, insists, I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield for just a moment until I can have a conference with him—we are not trying to deny him the floor, but if he will yield for just a moment, I am sure that the Chair will grant him the courtesy of being recognized in a moment or two.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will do so.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I heartily concur in the statements made by my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Brown. I think this would be a distinct step backward in the educational system of Pennsylvania. I can see no reason for the separation. I think it was ill advised. I agree with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, that the proper authorities were not consulted. I cannot see that any good can be accomplished, and I urge the members on our side of the House particularly to vote against this measure.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I have only this to say, that these classifications in school districts mean nothing except in regard to registration. There is no fundamental difference between a school in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. They do not have different objectives. This bill only has to do with what happens in this Legislature here and no place else. Therefore, I ask the gentlemen of this House to vote against this bill for this reason. So far there have been no fights over any political discussions and no trouble has ever arisen in this House as between the political parties concerning the schools in the state of Pennsylvania on a straight party measure, especially if it concerns first class school districts. If we pass this legislation I am afraid that the schools will be injected into the political arena. Putting schools into the political arena, as I see it, is a bad thing to do. Therefore, I ask this House to vote against this bill.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Schmidt.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, for giving me this opportunity to express my approval of the sentiments expressed by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

I want to say to you Members of the House, before we close this matter—I want to take this opportunity to say that of all of the Members sitting in this House in this Session I must say that I have had the highest regard for my good friend, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr.

Brown. I listened particularly to his council and advice and when it comes to matters of education, because of all types of legislation that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, may be interested in, education is first and uppermost in his mind. I can say to you that regardless of what side of the House we are on, when Homer Brown gets up and speaks either in behalf of or in opposition to a certain piece of legislation that deals with the educational system of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, you should give him your ear and deliberate up what he tells you.

It so happens that I also am in opposition to this bill. Teachers and all those connected with the schools do not want to see a bill of this type pass through this Legislature, and I say, based upon what representative Brown has told you, please vote this bill down.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to enter into a debate with the very eminent and capable gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, but I do have to say this, I know, at least I have been told by very eminent people, if this bill does not pass, there is a chance of the twenty-four million dollar program that we passed in this House for the teachers of Philadelphia failing.

The gentleman spoke of turning the clock back. I am very much afraid that we will have to turn this clock back again if the teachers of Philadelphia find out that there is a chance of their twenty-four million dollar program failing. We need this money. The tax program just passed depends upon this bill entirely. If this bill does not pass I can only say one thing, we will have to turn this clock back for a few more weeks in my opinion or have a special session. We have need of this money for our teachers; the teachers need the money. This program has the approval of the Board of Education in Philadelphia. We have to have this bill in order to make our promise good. Whether it is constitutional, or whether it is a step backwards, I believe is secondary to the fact that we have to pay our teachers and we need our twenty-four million dollars to do it, and this is the bill that is going to solve that problem.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, we feel grateful to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Schmidt; we also have the highest and warmest and personal regards for the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, and he has stated correctly that a tax question is involved.

Let me say to this House that that same tax question was involved in 1947, and there was written into the law a provision whereby the city of Pittsburgh school district and the city of Philadelphia school district did not have to assess the same taxes. We relied on it then at the suggestion of the authorities of the city of Philadelphia, and nothing happened and we did not have to have a separation. They ought to be able to rely upon the same suggestion that they made us rely on in 1947, without having to have a separation.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, again I want to agree partly with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown. What he says is perfectly true; there is no denying that. But I must also tell Mr. Brown and remind him that the laws of 1947 have never been tested in the courts and we don't know whether they would be declared unconstitutional or not, and we just cannot take that chance. Incidentally, the bill of 1949 is a little bit different from the Act of 1947, and we do not know whether that bill is constitutional. I can say thank God, nobody ever made a test on it.

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I regret that we have to take this action. It has been a pleasure working with the school district of the city of Pittsburgh. We have always gotten along well together but for the reasons just stated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, if these bills would be put in jeopardy by a court decision the school teachers of Philadelphia would be deprived of their salaries, and for those reasons, we, the Democrats of Philadelphia, are going to support this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section five hundred one of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 501 Petition for Annexation of Boroughs or Townships and Parts of Townships Any borough having a population of less than ten thousand inhabitants or any township or part of a township [contiguous] adjacent to any city whether wholly or partially within the same or different counties may become annexed to any such city in the following manner

In construing this section a majority in interest of owners of undivided interests in any piece of property shall be deemed and treated as one person for the purpose of ascertaining the number of petitioners

I hereby certify that this bill has passed the Senate and the House of Representatives

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ZIEGLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman explain the change and why we are changing these two words, on Page 2, line 9.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, the only change in this bill is from the word "contiguous" to the word "adjacent." As I understand it, the Legislative Reference Bureau and the Department of Justice were consulted before this bill was drafted, and it was recommended that the word "adjacent" be used rather than the word "contiguous," due to the fact that the word "adjacent" was used in an old Act, the Act of 1879, which was also a law of annexation. Subsequent to the passage of that bill the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in 122 Pa. rendered an opinion wherein the word "adjacent" was defined, and it was felt that the word adjacent should be substituted for the word "contiguous."

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. "Contiguous" means touching, as I understand it, is that right?

Mr. ZIEGLER. As I understand it, Mr. Speaker, it does.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, what does the word "adjacent" mean?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, it is rather hard to define. I was just checking it in the dictionary. It is a matter of degree. The word "contiguous" in a case of this kind would be a greater touching of part of the township or borough to be annexed to the city, so that if the word "contiguous" were used, it would cover a greater degree of touching. Therefore, by substituting the word "adjacent" it would give an opportunity for part of the township or borough desiring to be annexed to come in if it so desired, and be annexed to the city.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, in other words, the city of Harrisburg could annex Camp Hill?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, the city of Harrisburg could, if the residents over there, if a sufficient number of residents, petitioned the court to be annexed,—petitioned for the annexation of Camp Hill.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I don't know how the gentleman figures that the Department of Justice would be for a bill of this nature. The word "adjacent" in the dictionary means nearby. I am wondering what they mean by the word "nearby."

For instance, the city of McKeesport in Allegheny County, in my opinion, could go ten or fifteen miles away, but still would be nearby, and annex another borough into the city of McKeesport.

I do know that the Borough Association is against this bill, I am almost positive that the third class cities are against the bill, and I think I would be safe in saying that the townships would be against the bill. For that reason, the way the law is now, in order to annex any part of a borough or township, the section must be touching the third class city. If this passes, the section annexed would be nearby. The real question is whether the word "nearby" means within five hundred feet or one mile or ten miles, and with all the municipal organizations against it, I think we should vote it down.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I would say that there are many occasions when we find there is a vast difference in the definition of words to be found in a little dictionary than is found in a standard dictionary. This happens to be one of those occasions.

The courts have held that the word "adjacent", as used in its primary form, means adjoining or contiguous and they went further in their opinion, and they said that it gives more of an opportunity to a borough or township or part of a township which desires to be annexed to the city to come in, if just a small section of the borough or township or part of the township to be annexed touches the city. It gives more of an opportunity to the boroughs, townships or parts of the townships, and I cannot see how any city or borough, township or part of a township could come in if they understood the bill and object. I think it is to their advantage.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATION

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication which was read by the Clerk as follows:

April 27, 1949.

Honorable Herbert P. Sorg
Speaker, House of Representatives
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
Dear Mr. Speaker:

It is my wish to express my gratitude to each and every member of the House of Representatives for creating the position of Registered Nurse to serve the ills of the members of the General Assembly.

I assure you my work has been extremely pleasant and I am grateful to all of you for your many kindnesses shown me.

Respectfully

ESTHER FEISER, R. N.

DISCHARGE OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE
ON HOUSE BILL NO. 780

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am directed to report that the Committee of Conference on the part of the House cannot agree on the differences existing between the House and Senate on House Bill No. 780, Printer's No. 777, and move that the Committee be discharged.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from it's nonconcurrence and concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, this is the female labor law which I believe is a war time provision placing certain restrictions on the hours of employment. What are the amendments to the bill, what is the agreement, what is it that the gentleman asks us to concur in?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, the Senate placed an amendment in this bill which in my opinion does nothing except explain the word "we", the word "person" and the word "they". I think it makes no difference at all excepting to make it clearer.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I don't have the bill in front of me; I cannot put the thing together as explained. It may be good and it may be bad.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Evans, who was on the conference committee isn't around. I think that this bill is a very bad bill. I was looking for the lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye. I think it is her bill.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire that the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Herman, withdraw his motion until the lady returns?

Mr. ANDREWS. I wish he would, Mr. Speaker. This is a motion to concur?

The SPEAKER. The motion is for the House to recede from its non-concurrence in the amendments of the Senate and to concur in the amendments inserted by the Senuate.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if this is Mrs. Dye's bill, and she is the one I have in mind, I wouldn't want to recede on non-concurrence.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman withdraw his motion temporarily until the return of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Evans, and Mrs. Dye, the lady from Mercer?

MOTION TO CONCUR WITHDRAWN

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I should be glad to withdraw my motion, but I want to make this clear, that there was no objection from either one of them at the time. I had taken this matter up with Mr. Evans and Mrs. Dye before I made this motion. There was no objection made by either one of them at that time.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that we are talking about House Bill 780, Printers No. 777.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, if that is correct, it is not Mrs. Dye's bill. This bill was introduced by the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Kemp.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the bill was introduced by the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Kemp.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I wish to inform the Members of the House that Mr. Evans has withdrawn to his room because of illness.

The SPEAKER. The Chair regrets to hear that news. The Chair understands that the gentleman has no objection to the presentation of the motion at this time, or does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick offer a request that the motion be withdrawn temporarily?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I believe it would be advisable under the circumstances to call him and notify him.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Herman, wish to be recognized.

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, merely to repeat, I am glad to withdraw my motion until the parties are agreed on it, but it was clear to all of the parties when I spoke to them.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I know that you are clearing these concurrent resolutions and other matters at the desk in a proper manner. However, you see the disadvantage we are working under because we do not have the histories on the desks. Would it be possible, I know it is an imposition on the reading clerk, when we are asked to concur or nonconcur on a bill, for someone to give the substance of the bill, I am not being presumptuous but I can understand the difficulty we are working under in as much as we do not have the history. We cannot follow the numbers of the bills.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will comply with the gentleman's request, and direct proper identification of all bills be made, and that an explanation of the substance be given. The Chair would like to inform the gentleman, however, that all bills are being cleared before taking them up.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am perfectly willing to let this go to a vote. However, I want to go on record, Mr. Speaker, that we are not accepting these amendments because we think they are improper.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Herman, renew his motion that the House recede from its nonconcurrence in the amendments of the Senate and that the House concur in the amendments of the Senate?

MOTION TO CONCUR

Mr. HERMAN. I shall renew my motion, Mr. Speaker.
Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, will the Speaker please state the significance of the motion?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, those voting "aye" vote to concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate in House Bill 780, Printer's No. 777. Those voting "no" vote to nonconcur in the amendments. The Chair understands that the Minority Leader, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will vote to nonconcur.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members of the House to vote to nonconcur in these amendments.

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members of the House to vote "aye" on concurrence. As I stated before, the amendments in my opinion do absolutely nothing but make it clear. They don't make any change; they don't change the law in any respect in my opinion.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in our opinion it materially changes the law.

In our opinion it makes it possible to work women under certain circumstances consecutively for more than seven days, and the definition of the work week is contrary to existing statutes. We are absolutely opposed to that interpretation.

Mr. Speaker, on this roll or on similar roll calls concerning conference reports involving labor legislation, we are willing to accept a party vote on each one of them.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 970, Printer's No. 621, is a bill authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor and the United States of America, to sell at public sale to the highest bidder certain real estate located in Dauphin County, recently acquired by the Commonwealth from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

For the information of the House, this is the steel mill plant and bomb plant which was purchased earlier in the year, and I understand that they now want to sell it. I would like, Mr. Speaker, to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, the Majority Floor Leader, why at this time the state is trying to sell this property.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, as was stated on the floor at the time this bill was passed several months ago, there were no bidders available for this property other than the state, and it was to give an opportunity to the state to purchase the property, which it subsequently did.

I am informed, in keeping with the Governor's statement after the title to the property was acquired, to the effect that this property would be sold if any corporation, industrial concern or otherwise wanted it, and the state would make it available, even after the state took title.

I am also informed for the information of the gentleman that there is presently offered and will be legally offered, if this bill becomes law, a bid of five hundred and fifteen thousand dollars as a starting bid on an auction at public sale of this property, excepting some one hundred eighteen feet of land which contains, and on which is erected a very large administration building, which will remain the property of the state and which will be used by the state as offices for the General State Authority. In other words, we are in this position, if I may continue, that the state, if this bill goes through has an opening offer at the public sale for this whole property other than the substantial administration building, at the price which it paid for the entire property.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman who is selling this property. Is it being sold through an agent or is the state carrying on the negotiations for the sale?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the Department of Property and Supplies itself, I have been given to understand, will sell this property at public sale.

May I also add that the building which the state retains, it is estimated, would cost two million dollars to erect or acquire.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, is the state selling this property at a loss or at a profit.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, if my information is correct, the state cannot lose. The state will receive back at least what it paid for the property, retaining a portion of the property worth somewhat around two million dollars, which it gets in effect for nothing, or which it actually gets for nothing.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, is there any organization now bidding on the property, does the gentleman know?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the gentleman that until this becomes law the State is in no position to accept any bids or receive any bids.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, that is not the question I asked. I asked if the gentleman knew whether or not anybody wanted to bid on this property.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I know that there is a bidder, whoever it may be, who is willing to offer a starting or opening bid of five hundred fifteen thousand dollars.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, were any of those bidders originally bidding on the property before the property was purchased in the beginning by the state?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, my information was at the time the bill was passed several months ago that there were no bidders on this property and that the Federal Government could find no bidders under the terms by which they would sell the property.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me a good reason why they are selling this property now.

Mr. BRUNNER. For a good reason, Mr. Speaker. In so doing they get back the taxpayer's money that they spent for it, and save the taxpayers approximately two million dollars which would have to be expended to acquire a building for the General State Authority. I think that is a very good reason.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman admit that when they first purchased the property they made a blunder?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I hope that I will be able to make such a blunder, if this is a blunder, once a week for the next twenty-five years.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, we hope that the gentleman is as right as he thinks he is.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I don't see how I could be wrong on this one.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, we tried to tell the administration, we tried to tell the Majority Leader of the House when they were originally purchasing this property that they were making a mistake, and now they are actually showing that they made a mistake by trying to get rid of it.

Mr. KONDRATH. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to ridicule the other side of the House, I am quite sure that the same people that are interested in the purchase of this property, are the same ones who were interested in the beginning. The United Steel Workers of America tried to get the administration people to take over this property so that employers could find jobs for some twenty-five hundred people. There would have been bidders who would have bid higher, and would have been very glad of having the opportunity of taking over this plant. I urge all the Members of the House to vote for the passage of this bill.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I wonder if the House realizes that even after this property had been purchased by the state that the administration took the position if any industry wanted to purchase this property from the Federal Government at the price at which the state paid for it, that the state would yield its position, and that statement was made in the presence of the War Assets Administration officials, so that there would be no misunderstanding, yet despite that no offers were made. As a result the state took title, after giving a reasonable opportunity to everybody and anybody to meet the state's price which it had offered for this property.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I am not opposed to this bill, but as you recall, in the early part of the session when we were discussing the purchase by the state of this particular plant, on the opposite side of the House the Majority Leader stated that he was pleading for storage space for the Commonwealth. Now, Mr. Speaker, I don't recall any buildings being used for storage space, and I just want to know what happened.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman interrogating me?

Mr. FILO. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask what happened to the storage space. I would just like to find out where we acquired so much storage space that we don't need this plant any more for storage space, if we did.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I don't know what storage space has been acquired since this purchase was made, but I do know that at the price we paid we will recoup a good and very valuable building and make a profit. Under the circumstances we are in duty bound to protect the taxpayers' money and take advantage of this business deal.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, the state seems to be in the real estate business, is that right?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, briefly, no.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, what page is this bill on? I lost my calendar.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, we are considering Senate Bill 970, printers No. 621, page 56.

Mr. VERONA. I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I listened with a great deal of interest to the Majority Leader stating when the state purchased this property they agreed to sell it to anybody who would give them the same amount of money for the property. However, he did not say that the statement was made after the organized labor group in Harrisburg and several other groups brought pressure upon the administration to make that statement.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 15 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the an explanation of the bill.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, this bill is for the purpose of correcting certain deficiencies in the Act of 1937. As I have stated before, this bill is an amendment to the magistrates' Act of 1937. After a study by the Attorney General of the Magisterial system the Attorney General made certain suggestions, and the bill was introduced for the purpose of correcting those deficiencies. One of the features of the bill is that it gives the Attorney General the right to take into custody all the books and records of a magistrate, with the consent of the Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, we from Philadelphia are opposed to this bill. I do not wish to take up the time of the House with a repetition of the argument that was presented the other day, when I presented an amendment.

It is true, as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, states, that this bill was drawn up by the Attorney General's office to correct certain deficiencies and certain wrongs or abuses perpetrated by the magistrates in the city of Philadelphia, as shown in two O'Malley trials in Philadelphia.

The original plan as submitted by the Attorney General's office was exemplified the other day as a result of amendments submitted by Mr. Tahl. Mr. Tahl's amendments would give the chief magistrate and the Republican organization in Philadelphia the opportunity to monopolize the most pivotal central police court, and that is the central police court in the City Hall.

I had offered an amendment to provide for a complete system of rotation for the magistrates in central police court equal to the system of rotation for district courts, so that there would be no monopolization of central police courts by a few Republican organization magistrates. That is so necessary in Philadelphia because the minority magistrates of the Democratic Party in the past have been excluded largely from the central police court, which has been used as a fulcrum to build up the organization which is responsible for the evils existing in Philadelphia today.

The amendments of the gentleman from Philadelphia,

Mr. Tahl, greatly weaken the Attorney General's bill. The Attorney General's original bill came from the Senate, and it provided for a rotation of magistrates in the central police court, and further it prohibited a magistrate from changing his position without the approval of the district attorney's office. We of the Philadelphia Democratic delegation must vote absolutely unanimously against this bill.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I find myself in a rather awkward position. I am speaking for myself and I do not intend to express the feelings of any member of the Philadelphia Democratic delegation or any other Member of this House, but in joining with the Republicans and the majority party in voting for this bill, I feel compelled to make a few statements to bring out the necessity for such a measure.

During this session there has been brought to the attention of the Members of this House the graft, incompetence and corruption that has existed in Philadelphia, and the efforts of the majority delegation to cover up such offenses have not been too secure. However, in this particular measure we find that the Republican machine in Philadelphia is taking a step that I say they were reluctant to take.

This measure was introduced at the behest of the Attorney General's office, as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, indicated, in the light of disclosures of vast abuses that existed in the magistrates' system in Philadelphia. It is common knowledge that in the conduct of the Chief Magistrate's office in Philadelphia there were certain steps taken that were abuses of the powers that existed under the old Magistrates' Act. It is common knowledge too that the Mayor of Philadelphia and the District Attorney of Philadelphia should have been cognizant of the steps being taken, but they apparently did not recognize them, or if they did recognize them, they took no steps to eliminate these abuses. Unfortunately, the Mayor of Philadelphia has been so busy visiting firemen and taking generals in jeeps and shaking hands with Miss Cotton Queen when she visits Philadelphia that he was not aware of the abuses that were brought forcibly to the attention of the Philadelphia citizenry by the excellent investigation conducted by the Attorney General's office.

Mr. Speaker, I do want to say that the amendments that were offered the other day by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guarnieri, if they had been inserted in the measure, would have improved the measure considerably. However, in light of the fact that they do not appear in the bill in its present form, we should still vote for this measure because it is a step in the right direction. I think that the Republican organization has made a tacit admission here by the simple introduction of this bill and the pressure for its passage, that the administration of Philadelphia has been derelict in their duties, and that the Mayor has failed to comply with the obligation he had when he took the oath of office to uphold the law.

Mr. Speaker, in passing this measure we will go ahead and provide additional machinery and safeguards to protect the magisterial system. Most of the magistrates of Philadelphia have been conscientious individuals who have conducted their offices properly, with few exceptions. A few magistrates have failed to live up to the letter of the law and have cast discredit upon the entire magisterial system. This measure will in some degree aid us in eliminating some of the evils that now exist in the magisterial courts in Philadelphia.

I do want to point out, Mr. Speaker, that the real measures which should be taken in Philadelphia to improve the conduct of the magisterial courts are, first, of all, the election of a vigilant and alert district attorney, which we do not have in Philadelphia. In this measure we are turning over to the Attorney General functions that the district attorney should have exercised and failed to do.

Secondly, the election of a mayor who will be cognizant of his duties and will be able to perform them without ignoring what has taken place in the past.

Thirdly, Mr. Speaker, I do want to say that in so far as I am concerned, if I had a choice as to who would select the individuals who would sit in these police courts, I would prefer to go along with the chief magistrate of Philadelphia, who, as every one will concede is an able and conscientious magistrate, and has been doing his duty properly and who is sincerely and honestly interested in bringing the magisterial system in Philadelphia to the point where they will render the best service for the citizens of Philadelphia. Consequently, Mr. Speaker, I am voting for this measure.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I will only take a minute or two. I only want to say this, that Mr. Guarnieri is absolutely mistaken when he says that my amendments did not have the approval of the Attorney General. I want to say that the amendments were handed to me by a representative of the Attorney General's office.

I want to say further, Mr. Speaker, that this bill has the full, complete and hearty support of the Republican party in Philadelphia and that it is a bill in the interest of clean government. When the Democratic organization in Philadelphia opposes this bill, it reveals that they are not in favor of clean government; that it is just lip service, a sham and a hypocrisy. If you are for a good government you will vote for this bill. If you are against good government, you will vote against it.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I cannot refrain from answering the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl. I think that our record in this Legislature in this session and in the preceding sessions indicates that the Philadelphia Democratic delegation has consistently voted for those measures designed to improve Philadelphia's government, and they have consistently backed up measures aimed to improve Philadelphia's government.

The mere fact that Mr. Tahl says that a vote against this measure would indicate that we are opposed to clean government in Philadelphia, of course, is something that you will judge and I think in the forthcoming municipal election the citizens of Philadelphia will indicate how they feel about the Democratic stand on good government. We have fought for it and will continue to fight for it from now on.

Mr. ROVANSEK. Mr. Speaker, I wish to be recorded as not voting.

Mr. ANDREWS. I wish to advise the Speaker that I am sorry that this issue raised by the gentleman was not raised earlier in the session, because I have sometimes planned to make a parliamentary inquiry to establish the right of a Member to vote "present" and to see what the House was actually going to do about it, if he insisted upon his stand. My contention has always been that the House could not do anything about it.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO DROP FROM CALENDAR

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members to vote down this motion.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, wouldn't the gentleman rather have the motion voted down than have a protracted debate, at this late hour of the day?

Mr. BRUNNER. I think there is an issue here, Mr. Speaker, which can be decided by the Members without any protracted debate.

Mr. ANDREWS. I hope, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRUNNER. So do I, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I request a roll call, and we will verify this roll call.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I recognize that the statement by the Minority Leader to the effect that "We will verify this roll call" was made out of order and cannot be requested until after the roll has been taken.

I did not want the Members in their eagerness to dispose of business to lose sight of the fact that we still have business to transact of an important nature, although this may not be in that category. This is another bill for consideration by the membership of this House and I do not wish any suggestion that there will be a verification to persuade the Members that they should vote "no" on this bill. If, however, the gentleman wishes to have this roll verified after the roll has been called, I will be pleased to second that request.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I simply suggest that if the majority has one hundred and five verified votes in the House, there is no reason to debate the bill. That is the reason I said I would request a verification of the roll. If he has got one hundred and five votes in the House we will let him go ahead to a roll call and not bother about it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I will accept that.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Bane.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Andrews, Lovett and Brunner.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE ON HOUSING BILLS

Mr. DALRYMPLE filed the following reasons for his vote on House Bills No. 1052, 1053, 1054, 1055, 1056, 1057, 1058 and 1059:

On Tuesday of this week, I voted in the negative on housing. I was under a misapprehension regarding those measures, particularly the slum clearance and urban redevelopment provisions. Many members from small communities and rural areas held similar beliefs because these features of the bills were not fully explained by those best qualified to speak on their purposes and effects. It was for these reasons that I voted no.

In and about Erie there are thousands of war veterans who need homes. We do not have slums in my city. Ours is a beautiful city of homes, as you who have visited our community, are aware. There is a shortage of living space. We need dwellings, and we need them now.

I thought that the slum clearance features of the bills and the other counterpart, urban redevelopment, would not be helpful to us; that a great proportion of the $15,000,000 would be earmarked for these two purposes. I was not aware of the amendment limiting to 30 per cent, the amount of money that could be used for slum clearance and urban redevelopment. This is not an unreasonable amount of the $15,000,000 appropriation, considering what can be accomplished in behalf of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and possibly Easton. I am glad that those cities will at last have funds to be matched by the Federal Government to clean-up blighted areas and slums.

If I had the opportunity to again vote on these same housing bills, I would vote yes, for the program, as I now understand it, will be enormously helpful to war veterans and other citizens of the Commonwealth who are so badly in need of homes.

This is my statement on voting on this housing bill.

RESOLUTION

Messrs. SOLLENBERGER and JOHN M. REILLY offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 28, 1949.

That legislation is for "big folks" may be true sometimes; but on Tuesday evening one fortunate little girl became very important, when she was singled out for recognition during the closing week ceremonies of the House of Representatives.

While gifts were being distributed, the page boys, not to be outdone, presented their token of affection and appreciation in the form of a huge "teddy bear" to Jerilyn Ann Helm, the charming two-year-old daughter of the Chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the House. The teddy bear has been named "Bobo" and has become the inseparable companion of little Miss Helm; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby congratulates its page boys on their fine gesture, and on their good taste in selecting so delightful and appreciative a favorite; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to "Benny" Foltz, Chief Page of the House, who made the presentation, and to Jerilyn Ann Helm, to help her young mind to retain the recollection of the happy event.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. GUTHRIE offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 28, 1949.

Last evening marked the all time high point in good fellowship among the Members of the House of Representatives.

The entertainment in the attractively appointed quarters of the Harrisburg Post No. 27 of the American Legion, immediately following as it did the impressive ceremonies in the Hall of the House, was the culmination of a legislative session of which we are proud.

Credit for the success of the event is due in large measure to the fine cooperation and generous contributions of Members of this House. of its Majority Leader and of others, who gave of their time and substance.

The splendid presentation of the program incident to final adjournment witnessed by the Members of the House resulted from the thoughtful preparation and able planning of the Select Committee to Conduct Ceremonies Incident to Final Adjournment.

Devoid of conduct unbecoming the General Assembly of a great Commonwealth, the sine die ceremonies held during the early evening were at once impressive and delightful in the sincerity of the eulogies bestowed upon the Speaker, Leaders, Whips and Officers of the House, and the unexpected and well-deserved recognition of our hard working and very efficient Parliamentarian, the magnificent voice of Miss Hagerty, and the harmony of the House Quartette, and the barber shop sextette; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby expresses its gratitude to its Majority Leader and Members and to all others who contributed towards making the evening of ceremony and entertainment an outstanding success; and be it further

Resolved, That the Members of the House extend their thanks for a job well done to the Honorable W. Stuart Helm, Chairman, and his fellow committee members: Messrs. Smith, Mintess, Fleming, Yeakel, Hall, Watkins, Flack, Leisey, Hewitt, Waterhouse, Stimmel, Toomey, Bloom, Dennison, Stank, Lovett, Bane, Swope, Scanlon, Heatherington, Neidenbach, and Duffy.

The kindness of the Harrisburg American Legion Post No. 27, and its Commander, Fred Kleckner, in offering the excellent facilities of the post home for the party enjoyed last night by the members and employes of the House, and their friends and the hospitable and efficient manner of the staff of the Post in catering to the guests was to a great degree, responsible for the good time enjoyed by all who attended.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. HEWITT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, for several terms in which I have served here as a member from Indiana County, I have made it a practice to make one speech at least during the session. This session I have not been on my feet to make that biennial address. The reason for my delay is that I usually want to make my speech when my people are down here from Indiana in the gallery, so that they will see what a prominent Member I am, taking care of their interests down here. But inasmuch as they have not been down here this session, they must be perfectly satisfied that I am doing a good job.

My idea in making this speech while my constituents were here, was, of course, to let them know how well I was getting along. When a man comes to the Legislature he usually has an ambition, I have several. I had one burning desire after I got located in the House, to obtain a certain seat in the House. I sat in seat 136 in my first session, and by careful maneuvering of seniority rights, I got shifted around toward the front, and I finally landed in seat No. 56. I only have one more seat to get to realize my burning ambition. When I observed that Dr. Serrill who occupied seat No. 55 did not choose to run, I felt that here was my chance to get to seat No. 55. I was in the campaign at that time and I doubled my efforts and drove around the county and worked hard. I was nominated by the enormous majority of 30 votes.

During the years since this building has been erected there have been many groups here who were given affectionate names. For instance, I recall in 1903 and 1905, when this building was being erected and Pennypacker was Governor, they had a group known as Pennypacker's Prowlers. This building was going up at that time and they crawled up through the rafters and platforms to see what they could find out about Pennypacker and tell how well they thought he was doing his job. They were known as Pennypacker's Prowlers. So you can see where I got my start.

Later when John Fisher was Governor, we had Fisher's Filibusters. Later on we had the Farm Belt and Farm Bloc, Bible Bloc and Blockheads. I belonged to the latter group, and finally when this session opened, they organized what was known as the Brain Trust. Of course you all know that we started out with the Brain Trust, by first electing the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, as our Floor Leader; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, as the Majority Whip, and when they found out they had been selected by us they got a little panicky, and had to get the support of the organization which I mentioned before, the Brain Trust.

They discovered a young fellow in the back row, a lawyer from Carbon, Mr. Scott, and he proceeded to occupy the seat of Dr. Serrill, seat No. 55. They moved me into the seat of Mr. Fiss, but lo and behold, the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss, who occupied seat No. 57, did not run the last time and I had a chance to move myself back into Mr. Fiss' seat.

My friends back home cannot understand why they moved me over there, but you will well remember in the 1947 session I sat directly in back of the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, turned quickly to me and asked me, "What is the next move to make?" Well, you promoted the Floor Leader to the Speaker of the House, and so, my friends tell me I did a good job. The question is, am I or am I not a member of the Brain Trust. Some people say I am and some people say I am not, but if I am a member, how far does it extend? Does it extend back to the seat occupied by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Royer, or the seat occupied by the gentleman from Jefferson, Mr. Dennison?

The SPEAKER. The chair is of the opinion that the Brain Trust of this House extends from seat No. 1 to seat No. 208 inclusive.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, sitting to the left of the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, you will notice a very likeable gentleman from Butler, Mr. Greer, and a clever young attorney from Crawford, Mr. Kent, whose father was a Judge of Crawford County for two terms, and we all know what Mr. Andrews told us a few weeks ago about judges. They made an effort to put a lawyer in the seat of the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, but the oil interests got busy and they got hold of the Big Chief, Joe Pew, and he said "Son-no-go" (Sunoco), and Son stay.

Section 13 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall apply in the determination of rates of contribution for the calendar year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and thereafter

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this is no ordinary occasion and this is no ordinary bill. We are not approaching the discussion of this measure and the report of the Conference Committee in any spirit of levity.

I say this is no ordinary bill, because if it were an ordinary bill it would not be possible to stage the greatest mobilization of transportation since the gallant relief of Paris by taxicabs. If this were any ordinary occasion, it would not have been possible to stop a train on the Pennsylvania Railroad for twelve minutes. If this were any ordinary occasion and any ordinary bill, it would not have been necessary to send the State Police after absentee Members. If this were ordinary legislation it would not be necessary to impound flying machines to bring in absentee Members. We hope that the undertaker who came in a flying machine is not in any sense an unhappy omen.

This measure and this Conference report involve big money. It would not ordinarily happen that an action such as this would be staged in behalf of John Doakes, the man on the street. In order to understand the genesis of this action, I must refer to the Bible of the Republican Party, none other than the Philadelphia Inquirer, which in this morning's edition gives the genesis of this action. The Inquirer in this morning's edition recounts that there was a battle raging in the other chamber of this General Assembly. There was a movement on foot to refund to the brewers two and one half million dollars as a result of breakage. Then there was Senate Bill No. 367. A person very influential in Republican circles was on the floor of the Senate in behalf of the brewers' refund—Peddling in behalf of the brewers' refund, and ultimately there was brought to that gentleman, none other than one Owlett, this proposition, "you can either have the refund to the brewers or you can have Senate Bill 367; take your choice," and the gentleman, without even engaging in mature consideration, decided that if he must choose between the refund of two and a half million dollars to the brewers or this bill, he preferred this bill.

If he must choose between a refund of two and a half million dollars to the brewers or this bill, he preferred this bill, proof positive that this bill is worth more than two million five hundred thousand dollars to some of us.

The basic law with which this Senate Bill is concerned was peddled into this Legislature in 1945 by one particular group that wrote this law to suit themselves. In 1947 that same group came back and rewrote the law to suit themselves, and now that same group comes back with another proposal designed in whose interests? Designed in the interests of the little fellow or designed in the interests of those who are interested in rewriting the Act for the last three Sessions of this General Assembly?

I want to write into the record that no one knows what this bill will do. No one can tell what this bill will actually do until they have tabulated the reserve accounts of every employer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This bill changes your system. When this bill becomes law a separate account will be set up for every employer and he will have his own reserve.

Why all this maneuvering? Because under this bill, and I want to write this into the record, certain large employers of the state of Pennsylvania will be given credits in excess of six million dollars. Estimates run all the way from three and a half to six million dollars. On the basis of what I consider expert advice, I would write into the record that this bill is a gift, an outright gift and an immediate gift of at least six million dollars to a range of large employers, at the head of which stands the powerful Westinghouse Corporation. I also want to write into the record this prediction, that this bill involves an annual depletion of the fund in excess of eight million dollars.

Mr. Speaker, I want to re-emphasize by opening statement, that political leaders do not stage a mobilization of this sort because they are out to put a bill across that is of concern to John Doakes, that is of concern to the man on the street, or is of concern to the little employer. This is big business, Mr. Speaker. This is powerful leadership. This bill means millions, and it doesn't mean millions for the little employer. The measure was sugar-coated to some extent by the amendments inserted in the House, which gave the little fellow some consideration. Without the amendments inserted in this bill by this House this bill is an outright steal.

Mr. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this report of the Conference Committee. I felt rather proud for several days this week when this House saw fit in what I considered to be common decency to accept amendments to this bill which would have given much needed consideration to many people in this Commonwealth who are attempting at the present time to live and maintain a family on two or three days a week work.

As bad as this bill is, I was willing to gulp and swallow it with the amendments, but apparently the high command has seen fit to delete the amendments, and the bill in its present form is what I said it was the other day, strictly an employers' measure.

Mr. Speaker, what this bill is going to cost the unemployment compensation fund in the manner of contributions from employers, I am unable to say. Admittedly it is millions. I doubt very seriously whether anyone in this House today can say what this bill is going to cost the fund. I doubt very seriously whether the Bureau itself would be prepared today to say how many millions of dollars this particular bill is going to cost the fund.

In my opinion it is a disgraceful situation where the destiny of this particular bill would be linked with a beer bill in the Senate. I think that that is a disgraceful situation which confronts us here today. This bill is not going to help all the employers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; it was not designed for that purpose. It is strictly a monopolistic employers' bill, and those are the people it is going to help. I am quite confident that this bill isn't going to help all the employers of this Commonwealth because there are many employers in the Hall of the House at the present time who are opposed to the final adoption of this bill.

I can appreciate the tremendous pressure that has been exerted on certain Members of this House on the other side to vote for this bill, but I just want to tell you this in closing, please remember that the amendment that was originally put in this bill that would have given some ray of hope to people in your legislative districts, who are working one or two or three days a week is no longer in this bill, and for my part, as the bill is at the present time, I fully expect to vote against the Conference Report.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, you possibly noticed that I had my cup of coffee and sandwich before we started. I have stayed up just as long as all of the rest of you have. This legislation to my mind means something to the people of Pennsylvania.

If you gentlemen want to be honest and aboveboard on this legislation, you would stay here with me until we could get this Department to bring the books down here. I may not be able to read them, but I think my good friend, Mr. Andrews, would be. If you noticed, I voted to put the amendments into this bill and then I voted against the bill with the amendments in. For the life of me, I couldn't sacrifice the meager sum we gave to the poor people of Pennsylvania, when you consider the millions that you are giving to those who are making millions of profit today, which you read about in the newspapers every day of your life.

They told me that this was a simple bill; I heard it in my own Democratic caucus that this was only a simple bill. That's the way they put simple bills over in Pennsylvania. This is not a simple bill. If you want the facts, I am willing to sit here until we get the Department to bring the books over. If you fellows don't understand the bill, let us send and get the books and let us stay here until Christmas, if necessary, so we can find out what the big monopolists of Pennsylvania are doing to the people of Pennsylvania, how they are conniving every day to put the tax on the people who are the least able to pay it, and you know it.

I say to you honestly, if you are sincere you will stay here and find out what this bill does. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, said nobody can tell today what the bill really does. That is the reason why I stood here and fought on this legislation, because after many years in this House, while I might not be as smart as the other men in this House, as I do not have the education you have, I can still smell a bill that has a sneaker in it. You are taking it away from the people of Pennsylvania and piling it onto those whose profits are greater than they ever were in the history of the country. You know it and you can't deny it.

They tell you boys that you must go along in order to get out of the Hall of this House. You are giving up something; stand up and say "No, I want to know exactly what the bill does; I want to know what the return is to the big corporations that are making millions today. Stay here with me until we find out, and I am sure, when you definitely know, regardless of who comes and who does not, you will not vote for this conference report; you will vote in the interest of the people. I am going to vote against this bill.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, as I said the other day when I spoke against the amendments offered by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Evans, the amendments confused the issue which was brought before the Members of this House by House Bill 367, for the reason that the provisions in that bill dealt solely with employers' contributions to the unemployment compensation fund, whereas the amendments dealt with an entirely different subject, the subject of benefits to employees.

I thought then and I think now that in fairness to the Members of this House they should be able to consider these two issues separately, and that they should not be confused by any argument in behalf of the amendments which were offered and which have now been deleted by the conference committee report.

I would like to explain to this House the feeling, and the reasons for the report that was made by the conference committee, which incidentally is signed by one member of the minority. The considered feeling of that committee was that we were not prepared at that time or at this time to pass on the issue of partial payments for unemployment that has been the base of the plan. We didn't know what its effect on the employers, on the employees and on industry—what the over-all effect would be. It was considered by a majority of that committee that a study was justified, and with that thought in mind the amendments were deleted and a resolution was prepared directing the Joint State Government Commission to thoroughly study the day-base plan or the final payment. I will offer that resolution after action has been taken on this conference report.

It may be argued, I presume, that we don't know anything about what 367 as it now stands will do, but I think we are at least to some degree acquainted with what will happen. Very briefly, it is this, it will cure some of the iniquitous and unfair matters which have developed through the years since the beginning of unemployment compensation, which have resulted to the employees, and the general feeling is, that they should be cured and take care of.

A situation has arisen where many employers—and I am not talking just about the big employers who have been referred to by Mr. Andrews—I am talking about all employers, big and small. The situation has arisen and now exists where many of those employers paid a great deal more into the fund than the benefits which their employees received. In many cases they pay in two, three and four dollars to every dollar that their employees receive from that fund. On the other hand, this is where the inequity exists; many employees draw out at least twice as much money from the fund as they contribute. Certainly, gentleman, that is not to my way of thinking, a fair and equitable situation. Certainly every employer should contribute to that fund at least the amount which their employees draw from it, and that particular thing will be accomplished under 367 as it now exists.

There are cases that were brought to my attention where small employers who employ from two to three hundred employees, will be greatly benefited by the installation of the contribution rate which is provided in this bill, that their rate of contribution will decrease. It is true in many cases that the rate of an employer will increase, and that is the purpose of the bill and of the system, to create a balance so that everyone will stand in the same position.

Now, it has been mentioned that this will greatly reduce the amount that will go into the fund. I certainly will take issue on that because according to the best information that I can receive from the Bureau, that is not the case. The tables that are provided in 367 are the same that are in the law now, and their best estimate is that the amount that will go into the fund under this bill will be very close to what is contributed now.

I think, and I want to say again, that every Member of this House can vote in favor of this conference report and be fair, feel that he has done a fair thing and that he has not hurt any employes' group whatsoever, because they will not be affected in any way. I will take issue with the gentleman from Westmoreland when he says that a vote in favor of this conference report would be a dishonest thing. I therefore ask, the Members of this House to vote in favor of this conference report on 367 and that they also vote in favor of the resolution which will be offered later.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will not, of course, repeat the initial argument made for the benefit of the latecomers, I presume they have been detained as a result of a desire to give mature consideration to the intricacies on the measure now before us, and that therefore they are enlightened by the light of their own reason.

I had been in hopes that the learned gentleman to whom we have just listened would have thrown some detailed light on Page 12 of the conference report, "The rate of contribution payable by an employer entitled to an adjustment as herein provided shall be", and we then cut out the old table and put in a new table, and we see the percentage rate of adjustment. But the gentleman did not tell us what accounts will be adjusted, in what brackets the adjustments would be, what would be the total amount and how much is being adjusted. Percentages don't tell the story. You don't have the story until you have the tabulation of the individual employers, and until you have an experience rating. But we have a planned adjustment table and so, I agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland that we don't know anything about this bill until we have a detailed answer to the adjustment and until we have a detailed answer to the formula on Page 13 of the bill which again is one of the hearts of the controversy.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has given us a weather report, "fair and warmer", but he has not disclosed the bleak days of winter which this bill spells for many of the Pennsylvania employes.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Westmoreland will state it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does this one vote conclude the action on this bill?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable to understand the gentleman's question.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, is this the only vote to be taken on this bill, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. If the majority of the Members adopt the report of conference there will be no further voting on the measure before the House.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I was in error when I said that I would talk further on this bill when the bill itself came before you. I discover now that the bill itself is before you. This will be your last chance to show that you do not approve the procedure which bills like this take.

The gentleman on the other side explained to you that this applied to all employers in Pennsylvania. The other day when I was on the floor I told you it dealt with merit rating, and it does. I opposed merit rating at the time it was enacted. We are now going further in merit rating. To me merit rating, unemployment compensation is an insurance proposition. We enact this unemployment compensation for the benefit of the people who may be unemployed through no fault of their own. Now then the employers that have to lay them off don't want to lay those men off. They lay them off because they have to lay them off. The employer who don't have to lay their men off don't need any help; it is the employer that has to lay them off that needs help. But that is not the way merit rating works; that is not the way this bill works.

The gentleman on the other side will have to admit that if you were in a business that is seasonal, where you have to lay your men off, unemployment compensation will cost you more, which is rightfully so. It is an insurance proposition. The fellow up at the top who is working should be willing to help pay the other fellow to keep business going when it is bad. Understand there is merit rating in different industries throughout the state, the plan whereby the employees themselves pay into the fund for relief benefits. A man paid in a dollar and a half a month for relief benefits, and if he got sick he was paid so much a week. If he didn't get sick he never was paid anything, but they never reduced this dollar and a half; they left it at a dollar and a half to protect the poor fellow that got sick. Do you need any more explanation than that? That to me is as clear as anything.

Unemployment compensation is the same thing, my friends. It is to help industries that lay men off, and not to penalize them. I say to you today that you should not pass this report; you should defeat it now because it is not worthy of your votes, and you know it is not worthy your votes. There is no reason why it should get your votes. There is no industry in unemployment compensation—if you took merit rating out and threw it out the window, that it would be of more help to protect the fellow that needs the help. That is the reason why I stand here and fight for the protection of the fellow that needs help. So, my friends, I plead with you to vote against this conference report.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I listened with interest to the discussion on this bill from both sides of the House. I heard accusations made that this bill would be a steal; that it would be a give-away; that it would be a hand-out; that it would be unfair to the small employer and of great advantage to the man who employed many men. I haven't heard that charge denied. I have heard it said it would mean million of dollars to some of our big concerns. I haven't heard that charge denied.

I am interested in Pennsylvania and in these United States of America. I have been some what of a student of history and I know what our Congress has done in trying to ferret out by the Committee on un-American activities, and penalize them and punish them. I want to say to you that if this bill is passed and becomes law, I contend it would be an un-American activity; it would be unfair to the smaller groups.

I want to call your attention to the fact that since World War II up until now, eighteen big cooperations of our country have been enrolled in the million dollar club. Going back into those countries that we are now opposing; Russia, where communism and fascism are rampant we have that very situation, the condition of the little man against the condition of the big man. I say to you that this bill should be the handwriting on the wall and if you do not heed it, our republican form of Government has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. I am voting against this conference report.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. DALRYMPLE filed the following reasons for his vote:

I am stating our reasons for voting for the conference report on Senate Bill No. 367 which the amendments have been removed from, bringing it back to its original form. I have had conferences with Mr. McDevitt and Mr. Earl Bohr of the American Federation of Labor of Pennsylvania and they have informed us that they have withdrawn their requests for us to use our own judgment. They are asking for no votes either way. However, that is the reason for my vote on this bill as of today.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I suggest, Mr. Speaker, that while we have an official delegation of the Senate, and I am not referring now to the official delegation that is in the rear of the House to inform the Senate that we are prepared to adjourn sine die—I suggest that all of the Senators other than the official delegation can now be excused from the Hall of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to add, however, that the Senators are very welcome.

NOTIFICATION THAT SENATE IS READY TO ADJOURN SINE DIE

Mr. HARE. Mr. Speaker, we the Committee from the Senate, appointed in pursuance of a concurrent resolution adopted by both Houses, desire to inform the House that the Senate is now ready to adjourn sine die this 138th Session of the General Assembly on April 28, at 6:00 o'clock Eastern Standard Time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Committee on the part of the Senate.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE STUDY OF UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION LAW

Messrs. KENT and SCOTT offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read and considered as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 28, 1949.

Whereas, Continuing partial unemployment which has been increasing during the past year while seasonal at times, can also be an index of a slowing down of business activity; and

Whereas, The unemployment compensation law must be adequate to handle such partial continuing unemployment as a temporary problem as well as to withstand economic stresses over longer periods in order to insure confidence of the people of this Commonwealth in the economic stability of their State; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study of unemployment and the Unemployment Compensation Law in order to ascertain that the manner of its administration and financing is sufficient to meet the problem of partial unemployment both seasonally and during continuing periods of unemployment resulting from a general slackening of economic activity; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly, together with such proposed legislation as it may deem essential to carry out the same.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we are willing to accept this open confession filed by the majority. Having just passed the most perfect of all perfect unemployment compensation acts, it is now proposed that we establish a commission to find out where we are at and where we are going in the matter of unemployment compensation, and we are now going to study the very facts and factors that were contained in the bill we just passed. We are going to find out whether those trick provisions in that act are really good or bad. We are going to study a matter presented to this House as finished business, and so, Mr. Speaker, since no subject needs study more I suggest that we adopt this resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SENATE MESSAGES

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

SERIAL No. 108.

In the Senate, March 16, 1949.

Whereas, Thomas Fitzsimons, the American patriot, the father of American protective tariff and the statesman chiefly responsible for the financial stability of the United States during its formative years of its existence; and

Whereas, Thomas Fitzsimons was a moving figure in every constructive act of this country prior to, during and after the American Revolution; and

Whereas, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through the General Assembly thereof deems that the services of Thomas Fitzsimons to our State and the United States were of such outstanding character as to make it desirable that he be commemorated for distinguished civic service by placing a statue of him either in bronze or marble in Statue Hall at Washington, or in such other location as may be determined by the Joint Committee on the Library of the United States Congress with the advice of the United States Commission of Fine Arts; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur),

That the Architect of the National Capital be requested to place a State of Thomas Fitzsimons in Statue Hall at Washington or in such other location as may be determined by the Joint Committee on the Library of the United States Congress with the advice of the United States Commission of Fine Arts.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

SERIAL No. 105

In the Senate, January 25, 1949.

Whereas, The dispersal and inconvenient location of the offices of the various departments, commissions, bureaus, and boards of our State Government in the City of Philadelphia is not conducive to efficiency and economy and above all not commensurate with the dignity and greatness of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and,

Whereas, The Rentals paid by the Commonwealth for its Philadelphia offices for the last two decades would have amply covered the costs of an imposing state-owned building erected structurally and artistically according to the highest and most modern standards of office-building architecture, and

Whereas, the acoustics and accommodations of the rooms occupied by the State Courts in the City Hall of Philadelphia are deficient and functionally inadequate, thus requiring changes that cannot be longer delayed, and

Whereas, there is thus a definite need now extant in Philadelphia for the erection therein of a State Court House and Office Building, and

Whereas, recently the City of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have agreed that the so called "Chinese Wall," running from Broad Street Station to 30th Street Station parallel to Market Street be removed and a ninety-feet wide boulevard laid out upon the tract of land now covered by said "Chinese Wall" and that as a part of this development the future width of Fifteenth Street between the proposed boulevard and Market Street is to be fixed at sixty-seven feet and that of Sixteenth Street at seventy feet, and

Whereas, The execution of the aforesaid agreement between the City of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will place at the disposal of the City of Philadelphia an available site within less than one hundred yards from City Hall having a length of three-hundred sixty-feet and a depth of two hundred eight feet and thus admirably suited for the erection thereof of a State Court House and Office Building,

Now Be It Therefore Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) that:

(a) The Joint State Government Commission appoint a committee to make a study of the locational and dispersal inconveniences of the several State Offices in Philadelphia and the effect thereof upon the efficiency of the services rendered.

(b) That the City of Philadelphia be urged by the General Assembly of Pennsylvania to place at the disposal of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the aforesaid site for the erection thereon of a State Court House and Office Building.

(c) That His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania be urged to order a study by his subordinates of the suitability of the aforesaid site for the erection thereon of a State Court House and Office Building, as well as the advisability of such a project.

(d) That the General Assembly of Pennsylvania enact such legislation that may be necessary for the initiation of the project.

(e) That the Secretary of the Senate forward copies of this resolution to His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania, to the Mayor of Philadelphia, and to the President of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows, viz:

SERIAL No. 116

In the Senate April 27, 1949.

Whereas, For the past several years the matter of raising funds by taxation for the support of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia has been a paramount question before each session of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth and

Whereas, With each year this problem has become more difficult to solve since the cost of maintaining adequate school facilities and the salaries of teachers have risen and because the general tax burden has become heavier; and

Whereas, The school district coterminous with Philadelphia has been existing from hand-to-mouth so to speak, from biennium to biennium on temporary taxes prescribed by the General Assembly; and

Whereas, It is necessary that a fixed adequate solution be found to the financial problems of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia in order that the schools there can be maintained on a level with schools in this State and in cities outside this Commonwealth of comparable size, in order that the tax burden of supporting such schools may be reasonably placed with certainty, and in order that the General Assembly need not concern itself biennium after biennium with such an involved problem over such a local matter; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to investigate, study and determine the present and future financial needs of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia with particular emphasis on a comparison of Philadelphia's problems as compared with those of other large cities and considering all factors including trends in school population pupil-teacher ratio, and school building construction; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall attempt to formulate a basis for permanent forms of taxation to meet the financial requirements of such school district; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the next session of the General Assembly and shall propose legislation embodying the results thereof

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

DISCHARGE OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 286

Mr. HELM. Mr Speaker. I am directed to report that the Committee of Conference on the part of the House cannot agree on the differences existing between the House and the Senate on Senate Bill No. 286, Printer's No. 737, and move that the Committee be discharged.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its amendments nonconcurring in by the Senate.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has discharged the Committee of Conference on the subject of the difference existing between the two Houses on Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL NO. 286.

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of December one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. ##### PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. NAGEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we are in the closing hours of this notable session. What we have done here will go down in history for better or for worse; we hope for better. For the past two weeks we have crowded legislation through here at a terrific speed, a mile a minute, if you please, and the last calendar of this session carries one hundred and thirty bills for our consideration. I submit to you that it is humanly impossible for any individual, regardless of who he may be or how brilliant he may be, to analyze and understand those bills. Many of us are going back home, not knowing what legislation has been passed and what we have voted for.

Mr. Speaker, I suggest—I will go further than suggest—I request that the Chairmen of the various major Committees prepare a statement, mimeographed, and have it mailed to the Members of this House, setting forth the number of bills that have been considered in Committee, with a small notation as to what these bills will do and their status with the Governor, whether they have been approved or not. I think this is very important. It is important to both sides of the House. We don't want to go back and have to make excuses to our constituents. If we have done wrong we want a little opportunity to prepare a report to the general public.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 28, 1949.

Whereas, Continuing partial unemployment which has been increasing during the past year while seasonal at times, can also be an index of a slowing down of business activity; and

Whereas, The unemployment compensation law must be adequate to handle such partial continuing unemployment as a temporary problem as well as to withstand economic stresses over longer periods in order to insure confidence of the people of this Commonwealth in the economic stability of their State; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study of unemployment and the Unemployment Compensation Law in order to ascertain that the manner of its administration and financing is sufficient to meet the problem of partial unemployment both seasonally and during continuing periods of unemployment resulting from a general slackening of economic activity; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly, together with such proposed legislation as it may deem essential to carry out the same.
